

CONSOLIDATION CONTRACT TO BE DRAWN UP

Way Open for Largest Secondary Jointure in Berks, Montgomery

ELEVEN SCHOOL BOARDS SHOW INTEREST IN PLAN

Representatives of 11 Berks and Montgomery county school boards agreed last night in Boyertown High school to the drawing of a contract that may result in the largest secondary jointure in the two-county area.

Berks boards interested in the jointure are Boyertown, Bechtelsville, Bally, Colebrookdale, Douglass, Washington and Hereford. Those from Montgomery county agreeable to the Seventh to 12th grade jointure are Fagleyville, Swamp Independent, Douglass and New Hanover.

Edmund Y. Bechtel and Robert M. Harbster, representing Earl township (Berks), said last night their board is interested chiefly in a jointure with Boyertown on the elementary and secondary levels.

They indicated, however, the board still is "on the fence" and might decide on the secondary jointure alone.

Montgomery county's Upper Frederick representative, John H. Kulp, said he could not authorize inclusion of his board in the proposed agreement.

HE FIRST MUST REPORT TO the board what transpired last night, he said. The meeting was the first to be attended by an Upper Frederick representative and the fourth since the past June for most of the other boards.

Pike and District townships in Berks county previously had been considered for participation in the jointure.

Falling Chain Hoist Knocks Man in Tank At Dry Cleaners'

A falling chain hoist at a Pottstown dry cleaning plant knocked a workman into a muck-filled 6-foot deep tank yesterday afternoon. Charles Yost, 22, of 338 South Hanover street, suffered a scalp cut when the hoist struck him at the Philadelphia Dry Cleaners' plant at Cross and Madison streets at about 2:15 o'clock.

Yost was taken to Memorial hospital in a Good Will ambulance driven by Edward Seeders. The ambulance had been summoned by a fellow employee of Yost's.

Yost was admitted to the hospital.

Juniors Re-Schedule Dinner, Prom Date

A desire to "do a better job" and "to entertain the seniors better" is the reason Pottstown Senior High school's Junior prom will be held Monday instead of in May, as has been the custom.

Principal Stanley I. Davenport Jr. said last night the Junior class cabinet decided the past June that commencement season is too busy a time for the annual dance.

The cabinet felt the Juniors would like to be host to the graduating seniors at a dinner before the prom, too.

The dinner for the Juniors and Seniors will be at 6:30 p. m. in the Elks home. The prom will follow the dinner in the same place.

Earl R. Strange and Alma Klink of the faculty are sponsors of the Junior class and Eleanor Cornmesser and George Hughes of the Senior class.

Not-So-Gentle Winds Prevail

Coats flapped open and hats were blown away repeatedly yesterday as the Pottstown area was swept by 20 to 30-mile-an-hour winds, that sometimes whipped up to 42 miles an hour.

Roofers had to cling tenaciously to prevent being whisked off their high perches, but there was an advantage to their work nevertheless.

They could enjoy the invigorating sunshine and mild weather considerably more than those on the ground whose paths led them in and out of building shadows.

At about 9:30 o'clock last night there was a snow flurry. The weatherman expects today to be quite different, except for the wind. That still will be around. There will be considerable cloudiness, he says, and the day will be colder.

AREA SCHOOLS PLAN TO MARK EDUCATION WEEK

Educational, Entertainment Programs Organized For Parents

Welcome mats will be rolled out for parents in a number of Pottstown area schools next week, American Education week.

Upper Perkiomen schools will conduct special open house activities and Lower Pottsgrove consolidated school will invite parents to a Wednesday morning program.

Dr. George A. McCormick, Pottstown superintendent of schools, said there will be no special observance of American Education week in borough schools.

He explained, "We will have Armistice Day programs at the Senior and Junior high schools next Tuesday, but that's all there will be. With our building programs and other problems, we just didn't have time to plan anything more."

AT GREEN LANE SCHOOL in the Upper Perkiomen district, open house will be held Monday night. Pennsburg parents are urged to visit the school Wednesday and East Greenville elementary and high schools will be open Thursday night.

Red Hill school will be open for parental inspection next Friday.

Jewish Fund Drive To Begin at Dinner; Reynolds to Speak

A dinner at Mercy and Truth Community center Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock will begin the 1953 United Jewish Appeal campaign in Pottstown. Leon J. Levitz, chairman, announced yesterday.

The goal for the week-long drive is $67,430 to 20 toward the national goal of $151,000,000.

Organizing activities in the borough with Levitz to raise the funds are Sidney Pollock, co-chairman; Dr. Nathan E. Treicher, vice chairman; Harry Hoffman, secretary; Milton S. Hirsch, treasurer; and Frank Anderson, chairman of the Christian committee.

Speaker at the opening of the campaign will be Quentin Reynolds, veteran foreign correspondent who covered all the major European war fronts during World War II.

After the war, Reynolds traveled widely throughout Europe, coming into contact with the problems faced by persons in DP camps and but our staff was not big enough to see for himself the need for aid to the people of Israel.

He will speak in behalf of the Appeal for funds which will be divided among three organizations: United Israel Appeal; Joint Distribution Committee, and United Service for New Americans.

Sol Berger, plant manager, said he had instructed Yost and Paul Hudson, another employee, to remove a large basket containing the muck from the four-foot square tank imbedded in the plant floor. The chain hoist is used to remove the basket from the tank when the cleaning solvent has been drained from the tank.

The hoist broke and struck Yost as he was preparing to remove the basket.

Handling of Juveniles Criticized

Norristown was a hotbed of delinquency. Today its rate of delinquency is one of the lowest in the state.

"In Norristown, community groups banded together and licked the problem. We feel that with various activities the same problems can be licked in any community."

"One of the results of the program in Norristown was the establishment of the Harold G. Knight foundation to send boys and girls from underprivileged homes to camp for 10 weeks during the Summer."

"We knew the youngsters we provided camping for came from the types of homes which breed delinquency. Of those who have gone to our camps only one boy has been returned, and he is now in a private institution and doing fine."

Francino asserted with a shake of the head, "In this one situation in the upper end of the county we closed gambling places and closed the taprooms which served to minors, and our staff was not big enough to see for himself the need for aid to the people of Israel."

for local communities to take care of delinquents.

In speaking of "the big borough in the northern end of the county" (Pottstown) Francino said one of the biggest problems is to get school officials to co-operate in tracking down delinquents, stemming the tide against the waves of delinquency which have spread through the borough.

He pledged a cleanup of the borough if "it's the last thing" he does.

THIS PAST May 2, Francino raked Burgess William A. Griffith over the coals for his "politically-minded" method of handling juvenile crime.

"I'm convinced that Burgess Griffith of Pottstown has done much to create a serious condition in the borough," Francino declared heatedly at juvenile court hearing for six Pottstown area boys at the time.

"Regardless of the offenses youngsters commit in Pottstown, he disregards the public and the police by disposing of the matters of himself," Francino explained at the hearing.

Judge E. Arnold Forrest said at the hearing, "What sort of carrying-on is this for a Burgess? All such things should be turned over to the court. It's none of the Burgess' business."

Late this past year the Burgess gave a hearing for four false alarmers. He punished them by asking them to report to borough hall every Saturday for a number of weeks.

One boy was excused because he played football for Pottstown High school.

Youth Ends Dispute By Shooting Father

QUAKERTOWN, Nov. 6 (AP) — State police said a 19-year-old youth ended a breakfast table argument between his young wife and his father today with a blast at short range from a high-powered rifle which killed the older man.

Bed-ridden by pneumonia, Corp. Kenneth Stump said, young Werner Ziemonis took in hand a .35 caliber rifle he kept in his bedroom and fired from the kitchen door at his father, Joseph Ziemonis, 60.

Then young Ziemonis turned and went back to his first floor bedroom, Stump reported.

The youth was taken to Quakertown hospital and placed under police guard. He is employed as a short order cook at the club diner near the Ziemonis home on South Main street. His mother, Philippine Ziemonis, manages the diner.

Ziemonis and his wife, Evelyn, and their six-month-old daughter, Karen, reside with the youth's parents along with his sister, Mrs. Maria Reed. Stump said he learned the argument was over financial matters.

Unofficial Tally Gives Stevenson Kentucky

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6 (AP) — A photo-finish decision gave Democrat Adlai Stevenson Kentucky's ten Presidential electoral votes today on the basis of complete unofficial returns from Tuesday's balloting.

But the closeness of the decision—a margin of 1,047 votes—means the official tabulation about Nov. 15 will be watched with keen interest.

Since many absentee ballots left out of the unofficial count will be included in the official recapitulation, the verdict can be swung either way.

The final unofficial count from Kentucky's 4135 precincts gave: Stevenson 434,109; Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower 493,062.

Republican John Sherman Cooper's final margin over Thomas R. Underwood in the race for US Senate was 27,801 ballots. The completed count gave: Cooper 491,532; Underwood 463,731.

None of the other races, conceded yesterday, was altered. Kentucky will have six Democratic and two Republican congressmen, the same number as serving at present.

LOVER'S QUARREL ENDS IN SUICIDE OF STUDENT AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 6 (AP) — A lover's quarrel in a University of Texas science laboratory today ended in the suicide of a 27-year-old student who was to have been married next week.

Heinz Berger, refugee from Austria, was found dead in his laboratory at 3 a. m. by the girl he was to have married, another co-ed and the building engineer.

Justice of the Peace Robin Forrester returned a verdict of cyanide poisoning, self administered. The fiancée, 22-year-old Elizabeth Tracht of Fort Worth, was taken to the University hospital in a state of shock.

Foreign Relations Post Is Considered by Taft CINCINNATI, Nov. 6 (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) said today he is considering taking a place on the Senate's powerful Foreign Relations committee.

"I have not decided," Taft said, "but may do it."

Republican capture of the Senate gives them seven places in the Democrats' six on the committee, and therefore a Republican vacancy. The other Republican vacancies opened up with the defeat of Sen. Owen Brewster in the Maine primary and with Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr.'s defeat in the general election. Taft's seniority would enable him to take one if he wishes.

THE CURFEW ordinance provides any person under 16 years cannot remain on the streets or in public places at night from April 1 to Sept. 30 of each year from 9:30 p. m. to 5:30 a. m., and from Oct. 1 to March 31 each year from 9 p. m. to 5:30 a. m., unless such person is accompanied by a parent, guardian or other person having legal custody of such minor or unless the minor has a written permit.

The ordinance provides for arrest without warrant, prosecution of parent, guardian or custodian and alarm by bell or whistle.

RELIEF MONEY OKAYED UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP) — The UN General Assembly today approved 23 million dollars for relief of some 900,000 Arab refugees from Israel for 1952-53. The vote was 48 for, none against, with the Soviet bloc of five nations and Iraq abstaining.

EDUCATION WEEK —

In schools where facilities are available, programs of an entertaining and instructional nature have been prepared. Pupil demonstrations and projects will be displayed in classrooms.

Lower Pottsgrove school has promoted a plan to take the school program to the public by arranging displays in business places throughout the township.

A DISPLAY of Fourth grade materials has been placed at White-side inn, Ringing hill. A second grade display has been set up at Radcliffe's store, Sanatoga.

Sixth graders have placed a display in Dunmire's farm implement building and First graders arranged a display at Sanatoga radio company.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1952

He would be the finer gentleman having tasted of lying or pretence of any sort, or by wantonness or conceit.

—Marcus Aurelius.

Does Anybody Care?

FOR weeks now, since a series of automobile accident fatalities shocked the community, Pottstown citizens have been clamoring for law enforcement on West High street.

Merchants whose places of business border that mile of murder, have been leaders in the request for police aid.

For long years before this latest rash of killings, more Pottstown citizens have begged by word and letter for law enforcement on other thorough streets. Loudest and most recurrent petitions come from the opposite end of High street, where hot-rodgers endanger life and property.

All these latest pleas have fallen on deaf ears at borough hall. Just as earlier pleas went unheeded.

What must Pottstown do to get some police action?

Burgess William A. Griffith promised there would be action on the West High street situation. When, he said not. Just as delaying are his tactics here as they have been in other urgent borough matters.

Chief of Police James Laughhead has been silent. He just sits this one out. Just as he has sat out everything else.

Further, no single hand has been offered to the police who investigated the accidents. No suggestions have been made from the top. No orders have been issued, either. If there is to be any charge, it will have to be made, apparently, without department support.

In fact, some policemen are laughing at the investigating officers for doing their duty! They laughed at other "crusaders" who enforced the stop sign law, who arrested speeders on High street. Some police openly charged they were retarded in their duty when superiors tried to quash charges against motorists.

Is it a crime for Pottstown police to perform their duty?

Is it contrary to law for Pottstown police to protect speeding motorists from maiming or killing others?

It is well known that motorists will obey traffic laws only when they're watched by police. Sad. But true. Hence, it would cut speeding on West High if police merely patrolled that section.

But no orders, no suggestions have come from the police head. In fact, Pottstown's police have neglected patrols throughout the back end of the borough to try to give High street more attention. They did that because they are conscientious, not because of orders.

Is their work appreciated? Never is a word of commendation given them. Probably the police head never heard of their diligence. It may be news to him when he reads it here.

Citizens made suggestions that Pottstown's police committee might investigate the legality of some lights along the suicide stretch.

Has the police committee done anything about this? Will Councilman Earl Stranze, a great tub-thumper for safety, take cognizance of this public demand?

Republicans just made a start to clean up the mess in Washington. Possibly some active voters should begin now to think of cleaning up police inactivity in Pottstown's borough hall. Taxpayers are shelling out a lot of money to provide soft jobs for seat-warmers.

The Fifth Freedom

JUDGE Patrick P. Curran of Providence, R. I., superior court has set what may fairly be called a belated precedent.

The jurist had before him one Angelo Papagno of Woonsocket, R. I., who had been charged with disorderly conduct because he spoke his mind to a traffic patrolman at the scene of an automobile accident.

"There is no conduct in this case," opined Judge Curran. "To show anything other than mere bad words in the presence of the police. This does not suggest a breach of the peace."

At this point in the New York Times' report of Judge Curran's precedent there occurs what we hope is not a typographical error.

"I think one of the fundamentals of the freedom we enjoy in this country is that a man can be as vulgar as he likes."

Think of the use of some of our could have made of such a "fundament of freedom" if we had known about it the last time we talked to a cop!

Dear Sir 'n' Brother:

Wal, I see by the papers where cartoonists are the happiest persons in the world. Now they're able to draw people again instead of donkeys and elephants.

A pollster, taking a husman's holiday after all that election picking, reports one out of every three persons would like to change his first name.

The other two, I guess, probably are named John or Mary.

And say: Every national election brings up the same thought. How can Uncle Sam squeeze all those precincts within the US?

Hopin' your air the same.

Reader Asks System to Warn Drivers

Make Motorists Think

To the Editor: What Pottstown needs to help curb the fatalities in the area in addition to strict traffic laws is a system practiced by many large cities.

Whenever there is a traffic fatality in the cities I am speaking of, a white cross is erected to signify one person has been killed.

This may seem like a morbid way of advertising that a person has lost his life but it does make the motorist take notice. Many people drive their cars with the idea that accidents always happen to somebody else.

They are in a vacuum. They travel at break-neck speeds and zigzag through traffic with complete confidence, expecting everyone to get out of the way.

Erection of white crosses wherever someone is killed makes a motorist think, it helps him to realize that fatal accidents can happen anywhere, on the very roads he travels daily.

We need a civic program here in Pottstown. We should have a large billboard erected in a prominent place with a "scoreboard" of the accidents in one year, the number of deaths and the number injured.

The service groups are continually sponsoring activities for Pottstown youths with parties and dances. Why don't they really do a service and organize a good safety program that other communities will use as a model?

WORRIED

Voting Machines Needed

To the Editor: Today I voted for the first time in Pottstown. Having voted in Philadelphia ever since I reached voting age, I thought the system here was obsolete.

In Philadelphia voting machines are used at the polls. The machines make voting a simple task and in spite of the high cost of the apparatus it would soon pay for itself by eliminating a lot of employees at the polling places.

When a person votes in Pottstown, he has to sign a slip of paper in one place, hand it to a person at a table who checks

It's deadly serious. Marge I broke off with Bill in the middle of a size 13 argyle sock and my new steady wears 8!"

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. What British prime minister's name is borne by a traveling bag?

2. Who was brought to Julius Caesar hidden in a rug, according to legend?

FOLKS OF FAME—GUESS THE NAME

1. He is now in radio and television. He was born in Austin, Tex., and attended the University of Texas before heading for a stage career in New York. He made his debut on the Broadway stage as a spear bearer in the play, "The Sign of the Cross."

2. Back into history we go again to identify this composer. He was born in Pesaro, Italy, on Feb. 29, 1792. His first cantata brought him a prize, and his first one-act opera was well received in Venice in 1810. After that he wrote opera after opera with great success. His first hit was "Tancredi," then "The Barber of Seville," and "William Tell."

He had earned wealth and fame through his operas, so he wrote no more of them. His "Stabat Mater" was written in 1832, but not produced in full until about 10 years later. He passed his last years happily and died on Nov. 13, 1868, at Passy, France. What was his name?

Pottstown's Prides

Another in the series of beautiful homes that make Pottstown warm

This home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reidenouer at 35 West Sixth street has a deceptively small look from the front. It's built on a lot that is 190 feet deep, and the house has four sizeable bedrooms. Oscar C. Arndt, Pottstown contractor, built it 15 years ago. Downstairs is the living room, about 15 by 12 feet, with a brick fireplace, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a bath. The other bedrooms are on the second floor, and above them are two storage rooms. The shrubbery was planted by Reidenouer and is taken care of by him and their 15-year-old son, Alden Harold Reidenouer. West Sixth street householders are strong on trees, and this backyard is no exception, having apple trees, blue spruces and magnolias. Reidenouer is supervisor for Schulz Baking company. That's Mrs. Reidenouer on the front porch.

The electric utilities in the United States are using an average of almost 300,000 tons of bituminous coal every day of the year.

40 Eagles to Meet In Bowling Contest

Eagles' Aerie 626 shuffle bowling league will round out three complete games as teams compete on the electric howling machine at the aerie tonight.

Forty Eagles members are competing for prizes in the unique contest. They are divided into eight teams of five members each.

Attendance at the Eagles' meeting last night was reported good, with all officers and 30 members on hand. Vice-president Granville Wagner presided.

The club discussed decorating the meeting place for the Christmas season.

The year 1912 had an unusually chilly summer because dust from the eruption of Alaska's Mt. Katami partially obscured the sun in the Northern Hemisphere.

Season's First Snow Felt by GIs At Front; Chinese Stab at Positions

SEOUL, Korea, Friday, Nov. 7 (AP)—The season's first snow, a whiff of the bone-chilling Korean Winter to come, sifted down on the tense battlefield today.

The light fall began just before dawn as two platoons of Chinese—50 to 80 men—stabbed at South Korean positions between the shell-torn heights of Triangle hill and Sniper ridge on the Central front.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported 54 UN big guns opened up on the Reds as they started their attack and that 144 guns laid down a barrage on their withdrawal route, probably cutting the Red attack force to pieces.

The clash was over in an hour.

ACTION ELSEWHERE on the 155-mile front was even lighter. The snowfall grew heavier as the morning wore on, but left only a light coating on the ground.

An unusual quiet in the ground fighting settled down Thursday after Allied commanders ordered courageous South Korean infantrymen to halt their costly attacks against dug-in Reds on Triangle hill.

Thursday's calm was broken only by a futile charge up Sniper ridge by 150 to 175 Chinese Reds. A storm of artillery fire broke up the attack.

The order halting UN ground attacks on Triangle gave Allied big guns all the room they needed to work against the Reds' hidden artillery pieces in high ground behind the heights.

Since the artillery took over, its officers have claimed destruction of nearly 30 Red field pieces and damage of about 70. UN officers limited since the beginning recently estimate the Reds have about 200 of the Upper Perkiomen Joint guns concealed in the rugged terrain on Triangle and to the north. Senator Nixon Returns In Triumph to Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Vice-President-Elect Nixon, who only seven weeks ago wasn't sure of a place on the Republican ticket, today returned in triumph to Washington.

But sky fights broke out over North Korea Thursday after a relative calm in that department. US Sabre pilots claimed one Red MIG-15 jet destroyed and 11 shot up in furlough dogfights.

For the first time since Sunday, Sabre jet pilots were able to mark up destruction and damage claims in their ceaseless patrol along the Manchurian border, behind which the MIG jets are based.

In the first 14 Sabres took on 27 MIGs. Pilots reported one MIG destroyed and four others damaged before the last MIG streaked home. Pilots made three other damage claims but these were not confirmed at once.

Later in the day, 28 Sabres prowling MIG alley near the border engaged more than a score of MIGs in two battles. Pilots claimed four MIGs damaged but these also were unconfirmed immediately. Allied losses, if any, are announced weekly.

On the ground, a Chinese company attacked Pinpoint hill, crest of Sniper ridge. Thursday night after bombarding South Korean positions for 20 minutes with artillery and mortars.

East Greenville Board Pays Bills at Meeting

Payment of bills comprised the main business at the East Greenville school board's meeting in the Upper Perkiomen Joint High school last night.

The board's business has been limited since the beginning recently estimate the Reds have about 200 of the Upper Perkiomen Joint guns concealed in the rugged terrain on Triangle and to the north. Greenville is a member.

French Union Troops Take Indochina Offensive

HANOI, Indochina, Nov. 6 (AP)—French Union troops took the offensive in a long dormant sector of the north Indochina front today, cutting deeply into one of the Viet-minh's best supply lines from China.

They struck north at the rear of the Communist-led rebel divisions campaigning for control of the mountainous Thai country between the upper Red river and the Black.

The supply line is Colonial Route No. 2, which ranges more than 100 miles from Red China through the heart of the rebel-held country to the tip of the wedge-shaped French lines guarding the Red river delta.

Unit on Mexico Occupies 6th Grade At Lower Pottsgrove; Plaques Made

By MRS. PEARL BROWN
During the study of Mexico in social studies this year, the Sixth grade eagerly waited for the periodical magazine from Mexico. This unit was found most interesting through their art, music, poetry and customs. We made posters, clay modeling objects, market places and reports. The highlight of the unit was the making of copper plaques.

3d Grade to Be Busy With Study of Indians

By KATHRYN DUNMIRE
Days pass rapidly in the third grade because we have so many interesting activities planned.

Our fruit unit has just been completed. While working on this unit we made a booklet, designed the cover, learned to draw fruit, sang health songs, gave reports, and made a fruit frieze.

Now that our Hallowe'en party is over, we are planning to talk about Indians. We hope to do many different types of artwork and art work in connection with this unit as well as learn about the way the Indians of long ago and the Indians of today live. We are looking forward to the learning of an Indian dance.

Hurley Will Contest Re-Election of Chavez

SANTE FE, N. M., Nov. 6 (AP)—Patrick J. Hurley asserted today there were violations of both Federal and State laws in New Mexico's Senate election and that he would contest the re-election of Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM).

"We have already impounded ballot boxes in several counties and will contest the election," Hurley said in a telegram to Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.), chairman of the Republican Senate campaign committee. Dirksen offered Hurley the committee's support in any contest.

Chavez, who was in Albuquerque, declined comment.

Hurley sent a copy of the telegraphic exchange to Republican Gov. Edwin Mechem, chairman of the State canvassing board which will meet on Monday, Nov. 17, to canvass the returns of the election.

The virtually complete unofficial Associated Press count showed Chavez leading Hurley by 1545 votes.

Georgians Convinced On 'Little White House'

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 6 (AP)—Folks hereabouts are convinced the modest but comfortable cottage which now is sheltering Dwight D. Eisenhower and his family will become the "little white house" of the Eisenhower administration.

There was little surprise here when the president-elect headed for Augusta before he returns from Tuesday's election were even complete. He's been an Augusta admirer for years and more especially an enthusiast for the Augusta National Golf course.

So it was natural, when the ballot battle was over and he wanted rest and relaxation that he head for the cottage of his old friend, retired golfer Bobby Jones, on the grounds of the Augusta National Golf club.

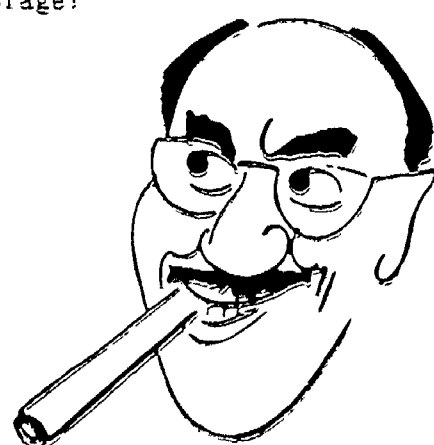

Eisenhower became an active member of the exclusive club about three years ago and has stayed several times in the Jones cottage.

Police Still Interested In Death Case Questioning

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6 (AP)—Pennsylvania State police are still interested in questioning a Des Moines, Ia., man in connection with the Aug. 23 death of an Iowa Legionnaire in a fall from a Pennsylvania railroad train.

Sgt. Joseph Pochyba disclosed today that he is making arrangements with proper authorities to question A. J. Pettit, one of the two men who accompanied L. N. Conklin to the American Legion National convention in New York. Conklin's body was found next to the railroad tracks at nearby Newport.

"I'd like to question that man, again to recheck his story. There have been no recent developments in the case but we are still working on it. There is nothing definite to report," Pochyba told a newsmen.

PINE FORGE

Mrs. Robert Trainer, corr. Miles L. Smith, del. Phone Pottstown 2923-W.
A Halloween masquerade party was held at the school. Each room was judged for prizes.
The following were the winners.
Grades one and two, Linda Benfield, Judy Benfield, Sandra Rhoads, Barbara Balsavage, James Howard, David Levensgood, Linda Levensgood, Elsworth Linsinbiger and Constance Reppert.
Grades three and four, Joseph Minotto, Kenneth Arndt, Sharon Spatz and John Shawell.
Grades five and six, Richard United States may be keeping secret an explosion of the world's first full-scale hydrogen bomb.
The Atomic Energy commission announced early the past September that a series of nuclear weapons tests would be conducted at the Eniwetok Proving Grounds during the "Autumn months." Those months are nearing a close, with the probability that the tests have been completed or are approaching an end.
This year's mid-Pacific tests were generally expected to include an experiment in which a standard atomic bomb would be used to touch off quantities of hydrogen sufficient to produce a super-sized blast. Such a blast, it was figured, would be many times more powerful than a nuclear fission bomb.
All of the Eniwetok "shots," starting with the first in 1949, have been closed to the press and public. But unusually tight restrictions were established for this year's series. The AEC said they were to be "conducted under full security provisions" of the Atomic Energy act and that only official observers of the Government and members of Joint Task Force 132, conducting the test, would be allowed at the scene.
ALTHOUGH ANNOUNCEMENTS have been made after previous Eniwetok tests, some in only terse form and others in more detail, this may not be done in the current series.
One source explained that the public information and security rules are set up on the basis of each series and that there could be no certainty set up on the basis of each series and that there could be no certainty any announcement would be forthcoming this time.
A full-scale test of a hydrogen weapon obviously might be the reason for the high degree of security imposed on the Fall series, even though the other explosions in the series might be of conventional although improved standard fission weapons. (A hydrogen explosion involves a fusion rather than a fission of atoms.)
The Government itself announced that the Spring series of tests in 1951 included experiments "contributing to the thermonuclear weapons research." (That is reference to the super-heat of a hydrogen explosion. The 1951 test presumably involved use of a small, experimental amount of hydrogen.)
Scientists have indicated that an atomic explosion would be needed to trigger a hydrogen explosion. With the hydrogen in the core of an atomic mass, not only the multi-million degree heat needed to fire the tritium would be produced but an "implosion" effect (an inward direction of an explosion) would be created to produce in a fraction of a second the high pressure required for efficient hydrogen bomb explosion.
The machinery required for this intricate gadget, including refrigeration to keep down temperatures until the instant of explosion, presumably makes a bulky and heavy weapon in at least the prototype form.

Rosemary Lane Requests Support From Husband

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6 (AP)—Rosemary Lane asked the court today to keep her estranged husband out of her house, and make him pay $300 a week to support her and their child, Susan, 7.
The actress, one of the once-famous Lane sisters, charged that George H. (Buddy) Westmore has used force and artifice to enter the home since the couple separated the past July 11. Westmore, who with his brothers specializes in movie makeup, also annoyed her with telephone calls late at night, Miss Lane alleged.
Miss Lane has pending a suit for separate maintenance. They were married in 1941.

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By LARRY DAVIS

LUCKY breaks have a way of showing up in peculiar fashion. For A. Emery Lord, Eighth Ward councilman, the pivot point in his life was a $15 pair of shoes.

It happened in Harrisburg in January 1937. Lord was peddling men's footwear at the time to support a bride of two months. An insurance salesman, ailing in the feet, wandered in and allowed himself out of desperation to be talked into the best pair of shoes in the house.

A few days later he returned, sought out the young shoe fitter and declared bluntly:

"Anyone who can talk an insurance salesman into spending his last $15 for a pair of shoes should be selling insurance himself."

Since then, Lord has devoted his life to selling and brokering insurance. The past March, he founded the Associated Consultants and Advisors of Philadelphia and New York; in May he incorporated with John Starb to create the Associated Insurance Brokers of Pottstown, at 233 High street; and in June he incorporated with George Field the Associated Advisors and Brokers of Bridgeton, N. J.

Emery Lord

Lord was born in South Pottstown on Aug. 6, 1914, the only child of the late Maurice E. and Kathryn (Emery) Lord. His nearest relatives are three first cousins.

Following his father's death when Lord was only nine, his mother became manager of the tea room at Pomeroy's department store in Reading, a position she held for 20 years.

She also managed a large highway restaurant, worked at the Spicer Manufacturing company for a year during the recent war, and managed Bechtel's restaurant in the Singer building. She died in 1947.

Lord attended school for five years in South Pottstown before entering Pottstown schools. He was graduated from High school here in 1931 with an academic background. He enrolled at The Hill school in the fifth form and was graduated at the height of the depression in 1933.

The day after leaving The Hill, he went to work in Reading as a laborer for the D. P. Harris roller skate factory feeding cold steel to the punch presses.

"I worked 10 hours a day and got paid 25 cents an hour," Lord recalls. "But considering the times, I was a lucky young fellow."

From helping to make roller skates, he went to the Berkshire Knitting mills where he trained for the selling game by working virtually in every department. After six months, he left to sell shoes for William Storm in Wilmington.

One year in Wilmington, and he was ready to move on; this time to Harrisburg as manager of an orthopedic shoe store.

In the meantime, he had courted for several years Miss Jane McCaslin. On Oct. 30, 1936, they were married. And on the same day, the store was sold and Lord was jobless.

The next day, he went around the corner and landed the position as orthopedic section manager of a competing shoe outlet; until the foot-sore and suffering insurance salesman dropped in two months later.

Lord first joined the Sun Life Assurance company of Canada, selling in Reading. And not long after, he began brokering. In 1940, he went with the Continental Casualty company at Trenton as special agent and in 1942 to the Mutual Liability Insurance company. Until the past March, he was that company's regional manager for Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

Gray-eyed, brown haired and trim at 155 pounds, Lord served 16 months with the Army as a tank commander and driver. He was wounded once in the hand and spent seven months in hospitals with trench foot.

A moderate joiner, he is a member of several local groups and a French eating klatch in Philadelphia known as LeCoin D'Or.

'Sweater Girl' Walks Off with Prize At Holiday Party for 1st, 2d Grades

By VIRGINIA MESSER

In Mrs. Warner's room, the children in First and Second grades received material from the Dairy council. Every child will make a booklet about Geraldine the Cow.

The children made colored turkey invitations for their parents to come to the PTA meeting.

The first grade is studying cats and kittens in science.

At our Hallowe'en party, Joseph Tilliger was the funniest. He was dressed like an old witch. Harry Overholtzer was the last one guessed, dressed like a kitty cat.

Warren Willauer was the prettiest. He was dressed like a sweater girl.

Marilyn Shaner was the most original, dressed like an old bum.

The trees are ready to sleep now because Jack Frost came with his icy fingers and froze the pretty leaves. The leaves that fell act as a cover lid for the flowers, wheat and grasses.

Grades One to Six received school pictures Tuesday.

Gerald Lupold was seven today and Harry Overholtzer will celebrate his birthday tomorrow.

The following pupils went away over the weekend: Elizabeth and Dorothy Maylath visited their Aunt Mary; Diane Heebner went to visit her grandmother and Shirley Baker went to the mountains.

Which Is Witch! Pupils Guess Costumes at Party

By BINNIE TOSHER

Witches and weird hobgoblins invaded the Fourth grade on Hallowe'en. Prizes were awarded to Larry Geiser for the prettiest. He wore a beautiful blue lace gown with an ermine jacket. Nickolas Petro was chosen as the funniest.

Nickolas wore a pirates suit. The most original was Gloria Sue Dunlap who was dressed as a sophisticated lady. James Fisher was the last one guessed. Refreshments were served.

Larry Geiser was 9 Nov. 4. Phyllis Townsley went to Baltimore to visit her aunt. Annette John went to Chester. Guy Rimel went to West Chester. The Third grade welcomes Janice Tunnacliffe, a former pupil of the Lincoln school, to her new room.

Larry Gerhart visited Royersford. Arlene Austin went to Phoenixville. Timmy Quigley went fishing in New Jersey with his father. Tommy Vroman went to Trappe.

Two of the Sixth graders had birthdays this week. Tommy Vroman is 11 today. Barry Rhoads had a birthday Sunday.

Fifth, Sixth Grades Give Fun-Crowded Party on Hallowe'en

By BARBARA GEISER

Oct. 31, the Fifth and Sixth grade had a fun-packed Hallowe'en party. Clark Hughes entertained by playing "Recreation" on his accordion. Robert Fern also entertained us by playing his accordion. Barry Rhoads and Gerald Haring asked several riddles. Charles Gaugler and Gerald Herrlinger sang "Hallowe'en".

We bobbed for apples. The refreshments consisted of home made pumpkin pie, cider, apples, pretzels, and potato chips.

Children winning prizes were: Judy Foley, prettiest; Donny Miller, funniest. He was dressed as a fat man. He had on a man's suit and he had a pillow under the coat of the suit, which made him look fat. Phyllis Smith was chosen as the most original. She was dressed as "Miss Autumn."

Her costume was made of white material and it had leaves stapled on it. Her mask was one large leaf with holes cut in it for the eyes.

Mr. Ferdinand, our teacher, had trouble guessing us. The last guessed were Richard Spayd and Daniel Mayberry. Richard Spayd, Mayberry was dressed as a clown.

1st, 2d Grades Begin Project on Pilgrims

By PHYLLIS SMITH

The First and Second grades in Mrs. Firne's room have made pictures of pilgrims and turkeys and hung them around their rooms.

The children have made an Indian village and have put all the tents, horses, glass lakes, and Indian men in a sand box.

Dale Rhoads went to the Pogoda in Reading. Regina Showers and Brenda Mest will celebrate birthday tomorrow.

Frank Hornak will celebrate his seventh birthday today. Robert Rimel went to West Chester Sunday.

Surel Tusher got a new dog named Inky. Forrest Prout got two new kittens. Their names are Smokey and Ginger. Alice Bealer got a new horse named Sandy. Russel Wade got ten new rabbits. Joey Freese got a new dog whose name is Taffy.

One of the important reasons for England's setting up of colonies in Virginia was the hope of getting timber and other materials used for building ships.

Mr. Ferdinand, our teacher, had trouble guessing us. The last guessed were Richard Spayd and Daniel Mayberry. Richard Spayd, Mayberry was dressed as a clown.

Overholtzer reported on the climate. We found out that Brazil is quite rainy. It usually rains in the evening and in the early morning. By the end of the year it has rained about 100 inches.

GOP INFLUENCE ON NEW BUDGET MAY BE SMALL

Final Decisions Still Left To Director of Budget; Ike Man to Sit In

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—When President-elect Eisenhower's representative meets here with Budget Director Frederick J. Lawton, he will find the big budget items still subject to high level review and change.

Lawton and his top aides, it was learned today, have not yet reviewed and approved departmental estimates for defense, atomic energy and foreign aid for the fiscal year 1954, which starts next July 1. President Truman must, by law, submit to Congress the budget for fiscal 1954 not later than Jan. 18, two days before Eisenhower's inauguration.

Truman's message to Eisenhower inviting him to send a representative to sit in with Lawton did not say Lawton was to be guided by Eisenhower's man. It said Eisenhower should send someone "so that he will be fully informed as to the items in the budget."

In a statement today, Lawton said "we are prepared to meet with General Eisenhower's representative as soon as he is designated." This gave no indication as to how much, if at all, Lawton was prepared to be influenced by Eisenhower's representative in preparing the budget estimates. Lawton will send to the President for final revision and approval.

The schedule calls for the President to make his final budget decisions and "freeze" the massive budget, a book hundreds of pages thick, by Dec. 15. It takes weeks to print the budget.

AFTER THE BUDGET goes to Congress, of course, that branch of government can make any changes it desires.

If Lawton were prepared to be influenced by Eisenhower's representative, the fact that the defense, atomic energy and foreign aid estimates have not yet been reviewed leaves a big field to work on. These items account for 58 of the estimated 79 billion Government expenditures in the current fiscal year.

Lawton's written statement, given in response to a query, said that "up to this time we have no information as to who (Eisenhower's) representative will be." Eisenhower, in Georgia, said he would designate someone at once. Review of estimates in the Budget Bureau is scheduled to end, with the defense estimates, toward the end of this month.

Eisenhower said in a speech on Oct. 2 that "my goal, assuming that the cold war gets no worse, is to cut federal spending to something like 60 billion dollars within four years."

THERE WAS SPECULATION today that any quick budget slashing the Republican administration might undertake would be attempted by not asking for new funds rather than by major immediate cuts in spending programs.

Here is the situation this speculation is based upon:

The budget bureau estimates that at the end of the current fiscal year (next June 30), the Government will have unexpended appropriations from Congress of about 60 billion dollars. Of this, 68½ billions was appropriated for defense and 11½ billions for other Government functions.

The money, although unspent, will probably be obligated in large part by June 30.

GOP INFLUENCE ON NEW BUDGET MAY BE SMALL

Final Decisions Still Left To Director of Budget; Ike Man to Sit In

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—When President-elect Eisenhower's representative meets here with Budget Director Frederick J. Lawton, he will find the big budget items still subject to high level review and change.

Lawton and his top aides, it was learned today, have not yet reviewed and approved departmental estimates for defense, atomic energy and foreign aid for the fiscal year 1954, which starts next July 1. President Truman must, by law, submit to Congress the budget for fiscal 1954 not later than Jan. 15, two days before Eisenhower's inauguration.

Truman's message to Eisenhower inviting him to send a representative to sit in with Lawton did not say Lawton was to be guided by Eisenhower's man. It said Eisenhower should send someone "so that he will be fully informed as to the items in the budget."

In a statement today, Lawton said "we are prepared to meet with General Eisenhower's representative as soon as he is designated." This gave no indication as to how much, if at all, Lawton was prepared to be influenced by Eisenhower's representative in preparing the budget estimates Lawton will send to the President for final revision and approval.

The schedule calls for the President to make his final budget decisions and "freeze" the massive budget, a book hundreds of pages thick, by Dec. 15. It takes weeks to print the budget.

AFTER THE BUDGET goes to Congress, of course, that branch of government can make any changes it desires.

If Lawton was prepared to be influenced by Eisenhower's representative, the fact that the defense, atomic energy and foreign aid estimates have not yet been reviewed leaves a big field to work on. These items account for 58 of the estimated 79 billion Government expenditures in the current fiscal year.

Lawton's written statement, given in response to a query, said that "up to this time we have no information as to who (Eisenhower's) representative will be. Eisenhower, in Georgia, said he would designate someone at once. Review of estimates in the Budget Bureau is scheduled to end, with the defense estimates, toward the end of this month."

Eisenhower said in a speech on Oct. 2 that "my goal, assuming that the cold war gets no worse, is to cut federal spending to something like 60 billion dollars within four years."

THERE WAS SPECULATION today that any quick budget slashing the Republican administration might undertake would be attempted by not asking for new funds rather than by major immediate cuts in spending programs.

Here is the situation this speculation is based upon:

The budget bureau estimates that, at the end of the current fiscal year (next June 30), the Government will have unexpended appropriations from Congress of about 60 billion dollars. Of this, 68 1/2 billions was appropriated for defense and 11 1/2 billions for other Government functions.

The money, although unspent, will probably be obligated in large part by June 30.

Obituaries

CHARLES O. JOHNSON, 56, a native of the Pottstown area, died early yesterday at his home in ALLENTOWN.

He was born on a farm near Frederick and lived there until he was about 16 years old. He was a letter carrier in Allentown from 1927 until he retired the past June.

During World War I, he served in the U.S. air squadron.

Mr. Johnson was a member of Grace Reformed church, Allentown.

Surviving are a daughter, Verna, wife of Harrison Benner; Mabel, wife of Robert Benner; Evelyn, wife of George Nonne-maker, and Mary, wife of Charles Ringer, all of Allentown; Emma, wife of Leonard Henry, Macungie RD 1, Lehigh county; Wayne and Grover, both of Reading, and Howard and Samuel Lloyd Johnson, both Allentown.

His wife, Bertha (Latshaw) Johnson, died ten years ago.

Services will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. from a funeral home at 1601 Hamilton street, Allentown. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery, Allentown.

MARY (BECKER) HINE, 89, of 203 BERKS STREET, died in a hospital near Phoenixville Wednesday night at 7:20 o'clock. She had been in failing health for the past 12 years.

Mrs. Hine, who would have been 90 years old on March 31, was the widow of Irvin H. Hine. He had been employed at the Pine Iron works, Pine Forge, for many years. He died nearly 15 years ago.

Mrs. Hine was born at Camden Creek, Berks county, but came to the Pottstown area early in her life. She lived on State street, at 125 Chestnut street and then for many years at 206 North York street. She moved to the Berks street address a year and a half ago.

She was a housewife throughout her married life.

Surviving are a son, Edgar H. Hine, 203 Berks street; one grandchild and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 404 High street. Interment will be made in Amityville cemetery.

Services for WALTER H. GROFF, husband of Mary Jane (Erb) Groff, 365 NORTH EVANS STREET, were held from Grace Lutheran church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. Edgar A. Brown, pastor, officiated. The services were in charge of a funeral home at 112 North Washington street.

Interment was made in New Hanover Lutheran cemetery. Bearers included Laurence and Leon Groff, Leroy Houck and Harry, Irvin and Elmer Erb.

Services for CLAYTON F. WIEN, husband of the late CHRISTA E. (Seiwel) Wien, of 244 CHESTNUT STREET, were conducted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from a funeral home at 404 High street.

The Rev. Martin J. Brinton, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiated.

Interment was made in Pottstown East End cemetery. Bearers were Robert and Richard Wien, Allan Knight, Cecil Gallen, Robert Hartenstein and Herbert Goodman.

with war materials to keep the war going.

"THE WAR could be ended in 30 days if we could effect an economic blockade of all the Communist countries," he declared. "Without the supplies of the free world, they could not continue to fight."

"Nearly every jet fighter shooting at American boys was made in Britain or was copied from British jets. Last week, England shipped 66,000 tons of rubber to Russia in exchange for commodities."

Barrett went on emphatically. "In the old days, the United States went into wars to win. MacArthur was fired because he wanted to end the war."

"He could have put a stop to the fighting there in one week by effecting the blockade he intended and bombing the Communists at their bases. He was fired because investment bankers, some of them at important posts in our Government, wanted to prolong the war so trade would not suffer."

"The British don't want the war to end because it would put an end to their Hong Kong trade with the Chinese Communists."

THE AMERICAN LEGION official stated there is more concern with world trade in Washington than with the men dying in Korea.

"A handful of men desire to build up the French and British trade for their own interests. They own great shares of wealth in the industry of those nations and in the United States and now they are attempting to get back their losses."

Barrett planned the use of Marshall Plan funds immediately following World War II. "Funds given to the European countries to aid them in reconstruction were used to produce goods to be used in trade with Communist countries."

He has a member of the basketball, football and baseball teams for his fourth year.

Joan Lucas, also of North Covington High school, provided piano selections during dinner.

Paul H. Grim, supervising principal of North Covington schools, introduced the student leader from Norco High school. He was John Petrick, a senior and a member of the basketball, football and baseball teams for his fourth year.

Joan Lucas, also of North Covington High school, provided piano selections during dinner.

He made the swim the past Sept. 5 near Kumhuva.

THE BARTO non-commissioned officer did not ask any member of his team to attempt the crossing, but instead tied the end of the telephone wire around his own waist and started across the turbulent river.

His body was washed against rocks while swimming across, but he succeeded in carrying the wire to the opposite bank, where it was connected to the next section of telephone line.

The citation concluded: "The exemplary conduct, courage and devotion to duty shown by Fichtner reflects great credit upon himself and the military service."

200 Fathers Attend Hill School Meeting

More than 200 fathers have joined their sons at The Hill school for a Fathers' conference which winds up tomorrow night at a session with Headmaster Edward T. Hall.

The fathers who traveled from 19 states and two foreign countries will join the boys tonight at a dinner in the school dining hall and will meet faculty members later.

The boys will be accompanied to classes tomorrow morning by their fathers and will attend the football game with Lawrenceville in the afternoon. They also will view a cross-country track meet at 4 o'clock.

At noon tomorrow fathers and sons will attend the dedication of the newly remodeled wing of the middle dormitory to the memory of J. Frank Patterson, class of 1943. Patterson lost his life in World War II.

Tomorrow night's program will include dinner and chapel services filled with large rocks, making it extremely dangerous to cross.

THE BARTO non-commissioned officer did not ask any member of his team to attempt the crossing, but instead tied the end of the telephone wire around his own waist and started across the turbulent river.

MARQUET SAFE

that will be May 15, 1955.

There now are 106 postmasters in Montgomery county, which makes it the largest county for postmasters in the country. The overwhelming majority of them are Democrats.

As president of the county postmasters' association, Marquet said there was a "fairly large percentage" of Montgomery county postmasters nearing the retirement age, who would be replaced by Republicans in a few years.

Indications of the number of Pottstown area Republicans who can dream of becoming postmasters in the next few years are that Eisenhower's Administration expects to be able to appoint 4000 postmasters in its first year and that this would be nearly 10 percent of the national total.

Another Pottstown area Democrat who got in under the wire by a few months was Kenneth H. Drumheller, appointed postmaster of Sanatoga the past Summer, also after a long wait.

THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION reported yesterday that there are vacancies now in three Montgomery county communities—Swedeland, Horsham and Merion Station.

In theory, postmasters are under civil service and get life-term appointments if properly qualified.

Actually, civil service requirements for a first, second or third class postmaster are such that virtually every appointment has a strong political flavor.

Applicants take civil service examinations for a postmaster vacancy. The commission then certifies to the postmaster general what it considers the top three eligible candidates.

Before the postmaster general recommends an appointment to the President, however, he consults the dispenser of patronage in the community involved.

jointure, but they recently became ineligible.

The directors at the meeting voted to have administrative officials of the Boyertown district and Attorneys H. Leon Breidenbach and Jules Pearlstone draw a tentative jointure agreement.

Breidenbach is Boyertown's solicitor. Pearlstone is solicitor of the New Hanover-Upper Frederick Joint board, which also comprises Fagleyville and Swamp Independent.

Copies of the agreement will be sent to each participating board when the agreement is completed. Another meeting of the representatives is expected to be scheduled for January after the individual boards have had an opportunity to send pupils to the Boyertown High school. Some representatives speculated last night that if 13 boards finally participate in the jointure, a larger building will be required for the Junior and Senior High school pupils.

There was no official statement to this effect, however.

SCHOOL DAYS

In West Pottsgrove School

14 in Grade School Taking Instrumental Lessons This Term

We are proud to say that we have 14 members from the grades taking instrumental lessons this Fall and 26 in the Junior Band from the past year. Pupils with instruments accompany their classes in two-part singing.

A film, "Riding on Air," was shown Monday to Grades 3, 4, 5, and 6. April Stolpe, Fifth grade, is in Pottstown hospital with appendicitis. Much activity is evident at play period, as each intermediate room has two teams lined up for Kick Soccer.

The PTA gave a Halloween party Friday afternoon. The primary grades paraded before the judges in the gymnasium. After being judged, the pupils were served refreshments.

Senior Class to Give Record Dance in Gym

The Senior class of West Pottsgrove High school will sponsor a record dance Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the High school gym. A variety of dances will be featured with prizes for winners.

Committees for the dance are: Refreshments, Molly Asmuth, Anna Ciori, Pearl Pota, Roy Mest, and Leidy Gaugler. Records, Maryann Hospador, Joan Horst, Dale Neiman, Joe Harbach, Erna Grunder and William Kellerman.

Bazaar to Be Sponsored By Athletic Association

The West Pottsgrove Athletic association will sponsor a bazaar, Thursday, Nov. 20, in the High school auditorium. Various booths will be set up to display cakes, home-canned vegetables and fruits, embroidery and crochet work and other hand-made articles.

Former State Resident Is Held for Murder

GRAFTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—James W. Oyler, 22, a former Pennsylvania resident, was held without bond on a first-degree murder charge today after waiving to the grand jury in the slaying of his step-father.

State police Corp. G. F. Randall said that Oyler was arrested in the Sunday night shotgun death of Virgil Dale Dennison, 55-year-old coal miner, at Dennison's home at nearby Webster.

Randall said that Oyler admitted orally he shot Dennison with a .22 caliber rifle in a quarrel which developed as an outgrowth of the sale of some rabbits which the two raised.

Facsimile of Farm Made by 3d Grade

By SHIRLEY DRUMHELLER
We have been studying about the farm and have had a movie about it. Since we were unable to visit a farm, we decided to make a facsimile in our 3d room. We started with a barn and a few animals, but it grew until now it has many toy animals and has a white fence around it.

The poster for this week is "Wear White After Dark." We added this rule to our safety rules.

Gary Bauer and Gerald Miller brought real pumpkins for Halloween. They have a prominent place among the skeletons, black cats and pumpkin faces that we made.

The PTA gave the elementary pupils a Halloween party. There were a grand march and prizes. Refreshments were served to the children by the mothers.

6th Grade Presents Plays for 4th Grade

By ROBERT HILBORN
Thursday Fourth grade pupils saw two plays presented by the Sixth grade. The first play was called "Cortez." The second play we called "The Haunted House."

On Friday the PTA gave a Halloween party for grades One to Six. Three pupils from the Fourth grade won prizes.

Donna Madaras, as a Chinese girl, won the prize for the most original costume.

Rodney Fazekas, in a fur coat, the prize for the funniest costume; and David Gaugler, as an Indian, the prize for the ugliest costume.

After the judging PTA members served refreshments.

Casting Finished for Play To Be Given by Seniors

By ANNA CIORI
The final selection of the cast for the Senior class play, "Dead of the Night," by James Reach, has been announced.

Members of the cast are Theresa Genery, Laura Brunner, Mary Asmuth, Pearl Pota, Erna Grunder, Anna Ciori, Paul Strezlecki, Leidy Gaugler, William Kellerman, Roy Mest, Richard Geisler, and Joseph Harbach.

The Senior class will present the play in the high school auditorium, Dec. 4.

Legally 'Dead' Person Charges Conspiracy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—A man returned from the ranks of the legally dead today to charge his wife and sister-in-law with conspiring against him.

Walter Earl Locke, Huntingdon, Pa. RD 3 was declared legally dead the past August by the Washington county court at the request of his wife who said she hadn't seen him since 1941. Subsequently, Mrs. Locke conveyed a Donora property to her sister, with whom she had been living in that city.

On Locke's return, he asked the Washington county court to nullify the property transaction and void the decree which made him legally dead. In his petition, Locke charged his wife and her sister knew his address all the time he was absent but concealed the knowledge in order to make the property transaction.

Refutes Story

U. S. Brig. Gen. Cornelius E. Ryan (above), who built the present battle-tested Republic of South Korea Army, reports that he has received no orders to add new divisions to the ROK Army along lines which President Truman said had been approved in Washington. Ryan asserted he is ready with a pool of trained ROK officers and men to create new divisions as soon as he gets the order.

Business Club Plans Basketball Game for Benefit of Spastics

The American Business club made plans for its annual benefit basketball game in the Elks home last night. Proceeds of the game will go to the spastic paralysis fund.

Pottstown High school will play the Swoyerville High team in this year's event Dec. 30. Two games will be played, one between varsity teams and another between the Jayvees. Both will be played in the Pottstown High school gymnasium.

In the past year's game the opponent was MacAdoo High school. Swoyerville's team played in the benefit two years ago.

Committee reports on attendance, program and membership were heard at last night's meeting. One new member, Leroy Prutzman, was accepted by the club.

President William Hillegas, who presided, appointed a nominating committee to prepare a slate of new officers for presentation to the club in December.

Those on the new committee are Donald Sands, John Hoffecker and Leonard Rachild.

Further plans also were made last night for a ladies' night to giving week, club members and take place Nov. 26. Instead of wives will go to Hershey to see holding its regular meeting Thanks-

Janitor Service Is Bet Of Governors on Election

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 6 (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee telegraphed the chief executive of Colorado, Dan Thornton, today:

"I am looking forward to seeing you soon with your mop and bucket."

This was Lee's way of saying he thinks Utah outvoted Colorado, percentage-wise. The governor with the most lax population will serve as janitor for one day in the office of the other.

"Don't count your buckets until all the votes have been tabulated," Thornton said at Denver after receiving the telegram.

In the early Middle Ages, Christian countries counted March 25 the first day of the year.

3 Scouts Invested By Oriole Troop 9

Three Boy Scouts from Oriole Troop 9 were invested with Second Class rank last night at a court of honor in the home of Norman Walker, chairman of the troop committee.

The newly-advanced scouts are William Walker, James Sconelly and Charles Wampole.

Howard Wampole, Scoutmaster of Troop 9, will present badges of their new rank to the three Scouts at a parents' night and open house program Monday night at 7 o'clock.

The open house, being held on the regular meeting night of the troop, will take place in the Scouts' meeting place at the rear of Antim's Glass shop.

All members of the troop and the troop committee, as well as parents and guests, are expected to attend.

Republicans Wrest Five Governorships

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—With all but one race decided, Republicans have wrested five governorships from the Democrats.

Michigan tonight was the only State where the issue was in doubt. There Democrat Gov. G. Mennen Williams had an advantage of only 3948 votes over Republican Fred M. Alger Jr.

Although the unofficial returns were almost complete, both sides were awaiting the official canvass, to be held in 10 or 20 days. Republicans indicated they would ask for a recount if the official figures gave Williams a margin of less than 10,000.

The Republicans' latest governorship overturn was in Montana, where J. Hugo Aronson, a GOP State Senator, defeated Democrat Gov. John W. Bonner by some 4900 votes.

Other States where Republicans managed to replace Democrats were Delaware, where Rep. J. Cales Boggs upset Gov. Elbert N. Carvel; Indiana, where George N. Craig beat John A. Watkins; Illinois, where William G. Stratton prevailed over Sherwood P. Dixon; and Massachusetts, where Rep. Christian A. Herter defeated Gov. Paul A. Dever.

Final Effort to Elect MacArthur Was Fizzle

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—A hopeless last-ditch effort to elect Gen. Douglas MacArthur president fizzled in the boom of the Eisenhower victory.

He got fewer than 10,000 votes in three States which had tabulated MacArthur ballots today. A few others still are to be heard from, but it was clear that his bitter-end supporters couldn't influence the final results.

There was no indication that the former Far East commander gave either consent or approval to the campaign in his behalf. As long ago as the past July he declared: "I will take no part in the campaign."

"I will not be a part of the political picture." He had just become chairman of Remington-Rand, incorporated at the time.

IKE IS FORMING ORDERLY PLAN FOR TAKING OVER

President-Elect's Friends May Learn 'Ropes' From Democrats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower already is shaping up an orderly plan for taking over the immense power and responsibility that his record-breaking vote for president called on him to assume.

The idea seems to be that Eisenhower friends—men who would help him with his administration—should sit in with the Democratic officials now running the Government and thus "know the ropes" by the time the new Republican administration officially takes over on Jan. 20.

The outline of this plan stands out from the messages already exchanged between President Truman and the president-elect in the 48 hours since Eisenhower's election landslide buried Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson and swept the Republican party into slim control of Congress.

TRUMAN HIMSELF cracked the door for such a procedure yesterday when he invited Eisenhower to send a representative to work with the budget director on the new Government budget.

Eisenhower followed it up today by suggesting that he propose "other individuals for indoctrination in several of the other departments." For himself, he accepted an invitation to meet with Truman and suggested early in the week of Nov. 17 as the time.

Leader Asserts Ike Unnecessary to Win

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Republican National Chairman Arthur E. Summerfield said today he believed the party could have won Tuesday's presidential election even without Gen. Eisenhower as its candidate.

Specifically, he told newsmen in answer to a question that he believed Robert A. Taft of Ohio, also would have been a winner in the balloting. He added, however, that he did not think the GOP would have won with just anyone at the head of the ticket.

Taft was Eisenhower's chief rival for the GOP presidential nomination and united the party convention the past July. Summerfield had maintained a position of neutrality regarding the two aspirants.

LEAD IS NARROWED

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6 (AP)—Official canvass of the vote in one county today narrowed Mrs. Gracie Post's slender lead for election as Representative from Idaho's first district. The red-haired Democrat is leading Rep. John T. Wood, Republican seeking re-election.

Little-Known Official Main Speaker As Soviet Notes Start of Revolution

MOSCOW, Nov. 6 (AP)—Mikhail M. Perukhin, little-known deputy prime minister, made the main speech tonight at an important celebration of the 35th anniversary

Senator Wiley Urges GOP, Administration Co-operation on UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.), who is expected to become chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, called today for decisions soon by the present and incoming administrations on vital policy matters affecting the United Nations.

Wiley made it clear he believes the United States would not be wise to wait until after Jan. 20 inaugural of President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower for these decisions. He told a reporter the US-UN delegation must have such a policy guidance in order to be effective at the present assembly session.

A spokesman for the US delegation said it would press for a vote in the assembly backing up the Panmunjom truce negotiators without waiting for the conference between President Truman and Eisenhower, now set for the week of Nov. 17. However, the debate is expected to drag on and there is little likelihood any vote can be taken before that date.

Wiley said emphatically there would be no change in the US stand against forced repatriation of prisoners. But he wants a fresh study of the issue so the delegation can speak with more authority in the assembly.

US MAY EXPECT NEW APPROACH TO GOVERNMENT

GOP Sweep Assures End Of New, Fair Deal Programs, Concepts

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Major changes in the dominant political philosophy as well as the complexion of Capitol Hill appear certain when the new 83d Congress meets next Jan. 3.

It will be the result of a switch from Democratic to Republican leadership on the strength of paper-thin GOP numerical majorities—now consisting of no more than one in the Senate and possibly only two in the House.

The major effect of Tuesday's balloting on Congress, therefore, would appear to center on GOP capture of vital committee chairmanships and the legislative machinery on both sides of the capitol.

In addition to a Republican speaker of the House and president of the Senate, arch GOP foes of "New Deal-Fair Deal" programs in almost every case are in line for committee posts with their vast powers over the shape of the nation's laws.

The powers thus won by the Republicans add increasing importance to the minuscule majorities by which they were elected. Then, too, many Southern Democrats have often voted with the Republicans on domestic issues in the past and may continue to do so.

Late Thursday, with six districts still undecided, the GOP held control of the new House by a whisker. The Republican count stood at 220—just two more than a 218-majority of the 435 members. The Democrats had elected 208, and were ahead in all but one of the undecided contests. One Democratic member, Rep. Adolph J. Sabath, died early today. A special election will be held in his Chicago district.

FINAL RESULTS from districts still in doubt may not be known for days, possibly weeks—until absentee ballots are counted, or an official canvass of the vote is completed.

Democrats also were contesting the count in Virginia's newly-created 10th district, now credited unofficially to the Republicans.

Sabath Dies; Had Longer Unbroken Tenure in Congress Than Anyone

REP. ADOLPH SABATH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—Death ended early today the career of Rep. Adolph J. Sabath, who served a longer unbroken tenure in Congress than any other man in US history. He was 85 and a Democrat.

Sabath entered the House on March 4, 1907, and on Tuesday had won a two-to-one victory for reelection to what would have been his 24th two-year term. His district was in the heart of Chicago.

A stocky, bouncy little man, he was an ardent backer of the Roosevelt "New Deal" and Truman "Fair Deal." He was universally liked in the House, and his speeches almost invariably were applauded by Democrats and Republicans alike.

"The Judge"—as he was known in the House—was an immigrant boy who saved pennies earned as a sawmill worker in his native Bohemia, now Czechoslovakia, and came to this country at the age of 15.

HE WORKED successively as salesman, cashier, bookkeeper and real estate man and, ten years after his arrival in this country, was admitted to law practice. He had extensive real estate holdings in Chicago and was well-to-do.

For many years he had been chairman of the powerful House Rules committee, which decides what bills are to come up for floor action. There he battled with both Republicans and Southern Democrats, often loudly and vigorously.

In 1949, when he was 83, Sabath was involved in fistfuffs on the floor of the House with Rep. Eugene Cox (D Ga.). The two were personal friends, but tempers exploded in an argument over an administration housing and slum clearance bill. It appeared that Sabath got in one or two punches.

Sabath underwent a major operation the past June and was hospitalized most of the time since. Several days ago he was brought from Chicago to the Naval Medical center at nearby Bethesda, Md., where death from complications came early today.

A special election will be held to name his successor in the House.

Ike Accepts Invitation to Meeting In White House; Rest Revives Him

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 6 (AP)—President-Elect Dwight D. Eisenhower got in a relaxing round of golf today after accepting President Truman's invitation to a White House conference on international and domestic problems.

Refreshed and in excellent spirits after 11½ hours of sleep, Eisenhower got off an early reply to Truman's suggestion that they discuss problems facing the new Republican administration "so it may be clear to all the world that this nation is united in its struggle for freedom and peace."

Eisenhower replied he shared Truman's hope on that point, and suggested the conference be held early during the week of Nov. 17.

The general arrived here from New York late yesterday for the start of a 10-day vacation. Weary after long weeks of campaigning and the strain of an almost-sleepless election night, he went to bed at 8:30 p. m. and slept until 8 o'clock this morning.

THE PRESIDENT-elect and Mrs. Eisenhower are staying at the small white bungalow of Bobby Jones, who made golf history 25 years ago, at the exclusive Augusta National Golf Club.

With them in adjoining bungalows are their daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Eisenhower, their three grandchildren, and Mrs. John E. Doud, mother of the new First Lady.

French Mother Acquitted in 'Crime Of Passion'; Crowd Cheers Verdict

REIMS, France, Nov. 6 (AP)—Traditional French gallantry toward a woman accused of a crime of passion came to the rescue today of Yvonne Chevallier, 40, charged with the murder of her politician husband.

A jury of four farmers, a traveling salesman and a mason acquitted her, after 40 minutes deliberation, of the murder of Pierre Chevallier, 42. She was accused of firing five shots into him at Orleans, Aug. 12, 1951, the day after he had been named Minister of Youth and Sports in Premier Rene Pleven's cabinet.

Wan and haggard, Yvonne received the verdict with a smile, her first of the two-day trial.

A crowd of several hundred in the courtroom applauded the mother of two and another crowd of several thousands outside cheered when she left the building after her acquittal.

A plain but patient farmer's daughter who had failed to keep up with her husband's spectacular political and social career, Yvonne made no attempt to deny the shooting. Her defense was that she committed the crime in a moment of passion after her husband declared he was going to divorce her and marry his more glamorous mistress, pretty blonde Jeanne Perreau, 34, owner of an Orleans candy store. He had returned home to pick up a change of clothing before visiting his mistress.

US Soldier Can't Stay Away From Mediterranean

TRIESTE FREE TERRITORY, Nov. 6 (AP) — 1st Lt. Jack C. Montgomery of Muskogee, Okla., can't seem to get away from the Italian peninsula.

In 1944, President Roosevelt presented him with the Congressional Medal of Honor for heroism on the Anzio beachhead. Montgomery then thought he'd seen the last of Italy, especially since he left the Army in 1945.

In 1950 he was recalled to active duty and sent overseas again—to Trieste.

Boy, 6, Hit by Car, Not Seriously Hurt

A 6-year-old Boyertown boy escaped serious injury when he was hit by a car while coming home from school at noon yesterday.

Richard Stark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Stark, 334 South Reading avenue, Boyertown, had severe bruises of the right leg and slight bruises of the left leg. He is a first grade pupil at Boyertown's Lincoln school.

A Boyertown Community ambulance was sent for, but the boy's condition did not require hospitalization. He was taken home and examined by Dr. Charles B. Dotterrer.

Boyertown Patrolman Grant Groff, who investigated, reported that the driver, George Becker, Morysville, had been going south on South Reading avenue, near the boy's home, when the boy walked into the car's path.

Kashmir Says Italian Bees Improve Strain

SRINAGAR, Kashmir, Nov. 6 (AP) — Government officials say the importation of Italian honey bees has improved the local strain.

The development of hybrid types by crossing Kashmir's native bees with queen bees of superior type imported from Italy was so successful that 17 bee colonies including several million insects were bred in one year, officials reported.

Honey production by the new types, bred from the Italian Apis Mellifica species, is said to be far superior to that of the usual Indian types. The Italian-Kashmir honey makers will have their first general showing next year when the All-Indian Beekeepers Conference meets here.

"All Saints Day" was observed at the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church with a sermon on the subject presented by the pastor, the Rev. Robert F. Brillhart. The hymns used during the service carried out the spirit of the occasion.

The altar flowers honored the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Harry W. Funk, who is president of the Women's guild and teacher of the Women's Sunday school class.

Rabbi Norman Salt, New York, will be the speaker at 3 p. m. Sunday afternoon when a program in keeping with the spirit of Armistice Day will be held at the East Vincent church. Representatives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the B'n Brith will be present to participate in the service. The Junior choir of the church will make its first public appearance during the service.

During the meeting of the Women's guild of the church to be held during the Sunday school hour Sunday morning, Furman H. Gyger Jr. will lead a discussion on "Peace." Gifts will be received, either new or used but good, for a child under six years of age.

Dr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Hughes, Ridge road, observed their 20th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle S. Ash, Ridge road, observed their 38th wedding anniversary.

Those who represented the Brownback Evangelical and Reformed church at the recent meeting of the Synod held in Doylestown were Raymond Prizer, Mrs. William Keeley, Donald Nelson, Milton Mowrer and the Rev. Elmer E. Fahringer.

Businessmen's Group Names Emil Aichroth President, Picks Staff

Emil Aichroth, 30 East Third street, Boyertown, was nominated to the presidency of the Boyertown Businessmen's association at a meeting in Cliff's Diner, South Reading avenue, Boyertown.

Others named to complete the staff were: vice president, Jacob Siesholtz; treasurer, George G. Greenwald; and secretary, Helen B. Gottshall. The nominating committee consisted of Walter R. LeFevre, Irvin Eisenhard and Harold Neubert.

Plans also were made for the second annual burning of the greens with Jacob Siesholtz, Emil Aichroth and Irvin Eisenhard in charge.

The board of directors of the association will determine as to when the Christmas lights, practically all placed now, will be turned on. The past year the lights were turned on Thanksgiving eve for the remainder of the holiday season.

Aichroth spoke on his recent trip to Germany. He and his wife spent two and one-half months in Germany and Switzerland.

Evangelistic Services Concluded at Church

Special Evangelistic services were held recently in Trinity Evangelical Congregational church, Boyertown, under the direction of Rev. H. I. Carmichael, pastor.

The Rev. Carmichael gave an Evangelistic message each night and the Kutch Sisters, gospel singers of Lebanon, assisted at all services.

RUSSIA MAKES MAJOR EFFORT TO WOO NATIONS

US Technical Assistance To Backward Countries Is Involved

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—Russia made a major effort in the UN today to woo backward nations away from accepting US technical assistance.

Andrei Gromyko made an unusual appearance in the General Assembly's Economic committee to deliver a blistering attack against President Truman's Point Four program for helping underdeveloped countries.

He accused the United States of squeezing out British and French competitors in these areas in order to grab all the rich resources in scarce strategic raw materials. And he said the American aim was not to help those areas but to seize greater and greater control over them to support "their aggressive, expansionist plans."

The Economic committee usually is attended by a lesser Soviet delegate than Gromyko.

THE SOVIET DELEGATE ridiculed American efforts to describe the Point Four program as having humanitarian aims. At the same time, he repeated Soviet claims that Russia is willing to help these countries by exchanging machines and industrial equipment for raw materials on the basis of equal trade conditions.

Gromyko said the US program inseparably linked military conditions to the technical aid it sent to recipient nations. In return for such aid, he charged, the Americans "continuously demand the right to build air fields and port installations for their imperialist war plans."

Saudi Arabia's Omar Haliq objected to Gromyko's charge that foreign oil companies had exploited his country. He said the concessions his Government had offered to the Arabian American Oil company (ARAMCO), which has exclusive rights to Saudi Arabian oil resources, were granted on the basis of a 50-50 split in profits.

THIS ARRANGEMENT, Haliq said, was similar to that offered a year ago by Russia to neighboring Iran.

Clifton Webb, foreign minister of New Zealand, said Gromyko's familiar charges only pointed up Russia's "disappointment in dis-covering that Western efforts to help underdeveloped countries had shown such progress."

New Steel Mill Takes Shape

Construction worker on lofty perch views part of US Steel corporation's new Fairless Works along Delaware river near Morrisville, Pa. In center is framework of bridge designed to carry ore from boats docking along river bank. The $450,000,000 plant, started little more than 19 months ago, expects to produce first steel in December.

Bookie Gross Recalls His Dishonest Times

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Bookie Harry Gross recalled today a time when he was hard pressed to turn a dishonest dollar.

That was in 1943 when Gross hid a bookie behind the false front of a laundry.

"We had an old Chinaman in front of the store ironing a few shirts," he testified at a departmental trial of policemen allegedly on his graft payroll.

The old Chinese pressed away so diligently, Gross went on, and drew so much business that he had to curtail his bookie operations to make more room for the laundry.

"I think now I would have been better off if I had stuck with the laundry," mused the bookie, with a wry smile.

Gross, you see, currently is doing 12 years in prison for gambling.

PRODUCTION INCREASES
NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Daily average gross crude oil and lease condensate production increased 11,350 barrels in the week ended Nov. 1, totaling 6,549,050 and compared with 6,287,800 barrels a year ago, the American Petroleum Institute reported today.

WAVES CAUSE DAMAGE

VALPARAISO, Chile, Nov. 6 (AP)—Tidal waves and currents stirred up by the earthquake Tuesday off the coast of Siberia pounded the Chilean coast today, causing damage estimated at $100,000 and taking the life of one person. Many small boats were sunk and fisheries damaged. The waves began smashing at the coast yesterday.

Pottstown Women to Get Double Dose of Table Setting With Wedgwood Lecture at The Hill School, Club Contest

With Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners on their minds, Pottstown women will collect new ideas for their holiday tables at two events next week.

Hensleigh C. Wedgwood will speak Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. at The Hill school, in connection with an exhibit of Wedgwood ware and a showing of original engravings by William Hogarth.

Next Wednesday through Friday, 14 area women's organizations will compete in a table setting contest at Oliver Lewis Christman's shop at High and Warren streets.

Directly descended from Josiah Wedgwood, creator of Wedgwood china, Mr. Wedgwood is president of the American branch of the dish company.

His topic will be "Wedgwood—A Living Tradition," and his lecture is free to the public.

Over 50 pieces of Wedgwood ware, dating from the 18th century to the present and including table ware, vases, medals,

Original engravings by William Hogarth and the water colors and prints by Thomas Rowlandson will also be exhibited and with the Wedgwood, will remain on display through Dec. 10, afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock and evenings from 7 to 10 o'clock.

Both Hogarth and Rowlandson were British artists and satirists and contemporaries of Josiah Wedgwood.

For their competing table settings, the 14 entering women's groups will be judged by Hensleigh C. Wedgwood, Annie Reese, a New York city consultant, and Liddon Pennock, Philadelphia florist.

Six place settings of Wedgwood table ware will be awarded to each winning table. First place prize is the Blue Grape pattern; second, Golden Ivory pattern, and third, Blue Cornflower pattern.

Six place settings of Spodes Mayflower pattern will be won by the table winning the greatest number of popular votes.

Groups entering the contest include: Twin Valley Garden club, Woman's Club of Boyertown, Pottstown Garden club and the Sororist club of Pottstown.

Century club of Pottstown, Junior Service League, Woman's club of Pottstown, Business and Professional Women's club and the Newcomer's club.

Schuylkill chapter of the Order of Eastern Star, Jewish Women's league, Memorial hospital auxiliary, Pottstown hospital Senior auxiliary, Pottstown hospital Junior auxiliary and the Pottstown Rose society.

Church Women's Council Collects Layettees, Sets Trinity Sermon to Observe World Community Day

Today has been designated World Community Day by the Pottstown Council of Church Women.

Speaking at a special service at 8 o'clock tonight in Trinity Evangelical and Congregational church will be the Rev. A. Burris Hallock, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

The Council of Church Women will collect the layettes and clothing for children under 6 years, on which its members and other groups have been working for the past several months.

Deadline for turning in the items, at Trinity Evangelical and Congregational church, Franklin and Walnut streets, is 2:45 o'clock this afternoon.

Members of the Pottstown Council of Church Women turn in the fruit of their months' long project at Trinity Evangelical and Congregational church this afternoon, in honor of World Community Day. Assaying part of the haul, which includes layettes and clothing for small children, are, left to right, Mrs. Frank Gross, Mrs. Paul Feight and Mrs. Gil Roberts.

Schwenk's Red Hill Home Is Scene of Hoffman Stork Fete

Mabel Hoffman, Barto, gave a baby shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwenk, Red Hill, in honor of Mrs. Paul Godshall, Lansdale.

Present were: Mrs. N. E. Schwenk, Mrs. John Karver, Mrs. Abner Schwenk, Mrs. Lester Godschlager, Mrs. Robert Mack, Mrs. George Sell, Mrs. Myrtle Karver, Mrs. Clara Reed, Shirley Reed, Loretta Schwenk, Mrs. George Styer, Mildred and Bonita.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Smith, Mrs. Paul Krauss, Marie and Marian Krauss, Mrs. A. A. Godshall, Maryann and Sarah Godshall, Mrs. Harold Trumbull, Mrs. Harvey Schlecher, Mr. and Mrs. William Schlecher, Donald and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Prussack, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heckler and Deborah.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

BIRTHS

In St. Joseph's hospital, Reading, a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Pawling, Birdsboro RD 2.

Earlville residents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Spayd, announce the birth of a son of Community General hospital, Reading.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pettry, 162 Sunrise lane, yesterday in Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ashworth, Pottstown RD 2, announce the birth of a son yesterday in Memorial hospital.

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Leister, Earlville, on the birth of a son yesterday in Pottstown hospital.

Watchful Circle Hears Thanksgiving Messages

The Watchful Circle of King's Daughters met last night in the social room of Seales Memorial church for a program in honor of Thanksgiving day.

Mrs. Daniel Drumheller, speaking on gratitude, was assisted in the Thanksgiving message by Ella Erb, Lily Ingram, Mrs. Warren Bealer and Mrs. George Russell who spoke on gifts and giving.

A Thanksgiving message from the absentee president, Irene Boyer, also was read.

The circle made plans for Christmas Sunshine work under the direction of Mrs. Warren Bealer. It was decided to send gifts to Lida Chestnut, Pittsburgh, and Poca-hantus Cook, Virginia, for American Indian work.

A contribution will be made by the circle to the United Fund and one to the Nabeth Home for the Aged.

Reports were given on the Montgomery county convention which was entertained by the Pottstown circle.

Century Clubbers Calendar Dessert Bridge, Book Review as Activities for November

Invitations, reviews and projects form Century club's November calendar.

Reviews of "Postmarked Moscow," "Windows for the Crown Prince" and "White House Profile" will be given by Mrs. Clarence C. Yocum, Eleanor Cornmesser and Mrs. Harry L. Christman, for the Book Hour at 10:45 a. m. Wednesday in the club room.

Chairman of the ways and means committee, Mrs. Hugh A. McDevitt, invited club members to bring a box lunch that Wednesday to go with the dessert and coffee to be served by her committee before the following card party at 1:15 p. m.

Red Cross chairman Mrs. Wilmer E. Knight and her committee will have charge of next meeting's program. Mrs. Oliver Swan, volunteer Gray Lady at Coatesville hospital, will speak Nov. 19.

Two pianos have been given by the club to Valley Forge hospital; several other pianos also offered will be placed by Montgomery county Red Cross.

A donation from the club will be sent to the United Fund, said Mrs. James C. Wilke, treasurer.

Through members' donations, it has been possible for Mrs. Ralph H. Spare and her public welfare committee to purchase a scale, thermometers, a syringe and crib sheets for the Visiting Nurse association's loan closet.

The Needlework Guild committee has made 26 children's dresses which will be delivered to the guild on Ingathering Day.

Mrs. Russell R. Tyson and Mrs. Maurice Mosheim will represent the club in a table-setting contest.

The bride, the former Mildred Weller, will live with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weller, 837 South Reading avenue, Boyertown.

Young Adults Form New Square Dance Club To Meet Mondays at Y Under Bill Morrell

Swing your partner round and round soon will become a familiar expression to dozens of Pottstown young couples. The Recreation commission is joining forces with the YMCA to form a young adult square dance club. For the past several weeks the two organizations have been working out plans for the dance group. The club is the result of numerous requests for a square dance club. The group will meet weekly on Monday nights in the "Y" auditorium from 8 to 10 o'clock. William Morrell, Pottstown square dance caller, will lead the club. He will teach a varied program in square dancing and will lead other types of dancing. All post-high school young people and young married couples are eligible for membership in the new club. The group will be the first of its kind in Pottstown.

Presbyterian Circle 4 Looks Ahead to Yule

Winter bouquets and decorations were made by First Presbyterian Circle 4 last night under the direction of Mrs. Harry Lord. Other Christmas thinking led members to vote on the sending of a CARE package to Europe and to hold a Yuletide party Dec. 4 in the church house under the leadership of Mrs. Harry Lord. Aprons, which members had made for the bazaar were on display. Mrs. Charles Bickler and Mrs. John Plask were hostesses. Sunday school was held. The play was produced by the West Pottsgrove Alumni association, and proceeds will be applied toward the group's scholarship fund. Starring in the western production was Gerald Levensgood, portraying a goldminer. Nina Digioia was featured in the title role of M'Liss, his daughter. Between-acts entertainment featured two marimba solos by Yvonne Lucas and a tap dance routine by Janet and Susan Kozel.

Your Turkey's Fixin's Make the Feast

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
(Associated Press Food Editor)

Here are two festive accompaniments to serve with your Thanksgiving bird. Both of them may be prepared ahead of time to save you last-minute rush and work.

YAMS IN ORANGE CUPS

Ingredients: 3 medium-sized oranges, 2 cups hot mashed cooked yams, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted), 3 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon vinegar, 1 cup shredded coconut.

Method: Cut oranges in half. Squeeze about 1/4 cup juice. Remove pulp from remaining orange halves. Mix pulp with the yams, 3 tablespoons of the butter, orange juice, sugar, salt, ginger, and 1/4 cup of the coconut. Fill orange halves with mixture.

Place in shallow pan and bake in moderate (375°F.) oven about 15 minutes. Mix remaining 1/4 cup coconut with 1 tablespoon butter.

Sprinkle on top of each filled orange half. Return to oven and bake 3 minutes longer, or until coconut is lightly browned. Makes 6 servings.

ONIONS WITH BREAD SAUCE

Ingredients: 2 pounds or two No. 2 cans small white onions, 1 quart milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 4 cups soft bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Method: Peel onions; cook in boiling salted water until tender. Or drain canned onions. Pour milk into top part of double boiler.

Add salt, pepper, nutmeg and 3 cups of the bread crumbs. Cook over boiling water 30 minutes, stirring often. Add onions and 2 tablespoons of the butter.

Turn into 2-quart casserole. Just before serving time, melt remaining 2 tablespoons butter in a small frying pan. Add remaining cup of bread crumbs and cook and stir over low heat until crumbs are brown.

Sprinkle crumbs over creamed onions and serve at once. If creamed onions are held in refrigerator, place in moderate (350°F.) oven until heated through. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Yams in orange cups are festive turkey companions.

Onions with bread sauce make a hearty vegetable dish for your Thanksgiving dinner.

Brownie Crafts Run From Table Favors To Weed Bouquets

Christmas and Thanksgiving crafts are on Kenilworth Brownies' program.

Wednesday afternoon in Kenilworth Community house they made favors, leaf and pumpkin decorated bands, for their Thanksgiving tables.

Next week they plan to make centerpieces of dried and dyed weeds for Christmas gifts. If members bring enough weeds to the meeting, they will begin work in the next gathering.

Flag bearers were Mary Ann Bealer and Kathy Colver.

Led by Mrs. Donald Sands, Mrs. Barry Nymman and Evelyn Wampler, Brownies present were: Cynthia Clark, Adele Evans, Carol Evans, Gladys Griffith, Nancy Gorman, Eleanor Hess, Sharon Piersol, Marybelle Rosewren, Donna Sands and Sandra Snyder.

Visitors were Barbara Stahl, Marilyn Hennessey, Linda Nymman and Jimmy Wampler.

McCormick Urges U. Pottsgrove Parents To Show Greater Interest in High Schools

Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools, urged parents to take a greater interest in secondary schools and their teachers in a speech to the Upper Pottsgrove PTA.

The Association met Wednesday evening in the school, with 45 members attending.

Dr. McCormick's topic was "Secondary Education," and he discussed the methods and costs of operating Junior and senior high schools.

The membership committee reported that 126 new PTAs have joined the Upper Pottsgrove group during the current year.

Next meeting will be Dec. 3, and will feature a Christmas program.

STEW FOR FREEZING

When preparing stew for storage in the freezer, don't completely cook the vegetables. They will finish cooking when you re-heat the frozen stew at the time you use it.

Dr. McCormick's topic was "Secondary Education," and he discussed the methods and costs of operating Junior and senior high schools.

The membership committee reported that 126 new PTAs have joined the Upper Pottsgrove group during the current year.

Next meeting will be Dec. 3, and will feature a Christmas program.

3 Brownies Have 2 'Birthdays' in 1 Year

A birthday party complete with cake in Parkerford Scout house celebrated the anniversary of all Brownies who had been in troop 141 for a year.

Girls receiving their one-year pennants yesterday were: Janet Bauer, Betty Lou Fryer and Sandra Lucas.

Dolls, it was decided, will be made for children less privileged than themselves.

Present were: Mary Beth Albright, Mary Elizabeth Brover, Paula Burkhardt, Evelyn Favinger, Carol Hoppe, Ann Kritzer, Virginia Rogers, Antoinette Taylor and Linda Williams.

Leaders were Flora Williams and Mrs. William Albright.

Present were: Mary Ann Scheidt, Jacqueline Diener, Marjorie Diener, Dolores Pereni, Nancy Slade, Marie Schott, Margaret Rhoades, Kathleen Lloyd, Roslyn Stranick, Janet Gatta, Patricia Koren and Helen Himes.

Patricia Stranick, Donna Reed, Joanne Pereni, Barbara Houck, Mary Ann Firing, Priscilla Heisler and Nancy Dettore, leader.

Next time you cook sausage links for breakfast, add thick apple slices to the drippings in the pan, sprinkle with salt and brown sugar and fry gently until tender.

Should Idaho Democrat Unseat House Incumbent, Congress Record of Eleven Women Lawmakers Will Be Broken In 1953

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (AP)—There will be one—and perhaps two—new female faces in the newly-elected House, while one familiar face will be missing.

The all-time record of 11 women lawmakers in any one session of Congress will be broken if Mrs. Gracie Pfof, a Democrat, wins her fight to unseat Rep. John T. Wood, the Republican incumbent, in the first district of Idaho.

A Pfof victory would put 12 women in the new Congress, 11 in the House and one in the Senate.

Returns from all but nine precincts give Mrs. Pfof 54,575 votes and Wood 53,889. Wood has refused to concede, and indications are the outcome won't be decided until the official canvass.

Mrs. Pfof, if elected, would be one of the two new women legislators. The other will be Mrs. Leonor A. Sullivan, widow of a former representative from Missouri and a Democrat. She won a first term House seat.

But Rep. Reva Beck Bosone of Utah failed in a quest for a third term. Mrs. Bosone is a Democrat.

All of the 10 women in the present House, six Republicans and four Democrats, were up for re-election and Mrs. Bosone, a former judge in Salt Lake City, was the only loser.

For the first time in American legislative history there will be a mother and son serving together in the House.

Rep. Frances Bolton, who represents a Cleveland district, won her eighth term, while her son, Oliver, was elected from Ohio's 11th district for his first term.

Women leaders in both parties had been hoping that, because of the 25 women candidates for the

Mrs. Miriam S. Hall, Prohibitionist.

Rep. Katharine St. George, Republican from Upstate New York, won re-election as Rep. Marguerite Church of Illinois; Rep. Cecil who was successful in her fourth bid, also won over a woman, Mrs. Thompson of Michigan.

The three Democrats returned to office are Rep. Vera Buchanan of Pennsylvania; Rep. Elizabeth Kee of West Virginia, and Rep. Edna Kelly of New York.

One of the newcomers, Mrs. Sullivan, defeated both a woman, Clara Perkins, Progressive, and a man, Rep. Claude Bakewell, Republican. Bakewell was elected in 1951 to succeed the late John B. Sullivan.

Mix a tablespoon of sugar and a teaspoon of cinnamon together and sprinkle the mixture on sugar cookies before baking.

ARE YOU MADE FOR 'FIRE AND ICE?'

Try this quiz and see!

What is the American girl made of? Sugar and spice and everything nice? Not since the days of the Gibson Girl! There's a new American beauty... she's tease and temptress, siren and gamine, dynamic and demure. Men find her slightly, delightfully baffling. Sometimes a little maddening. Yet they admit she's easily the most exciting woman in all the world! She's the 1952 American beauty, with a foolproof formula for melting a male. She's the "Fire and Ice" girl. (Are you?)

Have you ever danced with your shoes off?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Did you ever wish on a new moon?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you blush when you find yourself flirting?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
When a recipe calls for one dash of bitters, do you think it's better with two?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you secretly hope the next man you meet will be a psychiatrist?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you sometimes feel that other women resent you?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Have you ever wanted to wear an ankle bracelet?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do sables excite you, even on other women?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you love to look up at a man?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you face crowded parties with panic—then wind up having a wonderful time?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Does gypsy music make you sad?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you think any man really understands you?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Would you streak your hair with platinum without consulting your husband?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
If tourist flights were running, would you take a trip to Mars?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>
Do you close your eyes when you're kissed?	yes <input type="checkbox"/> no <input type="checkbox"/>

Can you honestly answer "yes" to at least eight of these questions? Then you're made of "Fire and Ice!" And Revlon's lush-and-passionate scarlet was made just for you—a daring projection of your own hidden personality! Wear it tonight. It may be the night of your lifetime!

Career Minded Santa Loads His Christmas Pack with Vocational Toys

Atomic Science comes down to a school-age level in a new chemistry set featuring a small energy spintharoscope in which future Einsteins can view the disintegration of atomic particles at speeds of more than 10,000 miles a second.

Airminded young ladies will enjoy this junior stewardess set which enables little girls to acquire early experience.

Manual dexterity and an interest in design is developed by this new craft kit, containing a Sioux Indian war bonnet, complete with feathers, felt and beads, to be put together by the youthful brave.

For future dress designers, here's a new idea in paper doll play, with dolls and high-style costumes housed in a wardrobe of Pennsylvania Dutch motif, complete with hat shelf, closet bar, hangers and costume accessories.

Don't Call Santa Claus old-fashioned. He's hip to the newest wrinkles in child psychology and juvenile aptitude tests.

His Christmas toy pack is loaded with playthings scientifically designed to develop vocational talents among America's small fry.

Nowadays a toy must have a function. Just being fun to play with isn't enough.

It must be carefully selected to suit the age and inclinations of its recipient. It must be planned to develop special aptitudes—manual dexterity and muscular co-ordination for the littlest children, future careers for the bigger ones.

This year's toy pack can teach small fry to become dress designers, atomic scientists, leather craftsmen, airline stewardesses and, of course, such popular figures as firemen and policemen.

Funny thing is, the kids seem to enjoy these scientific toys even more than the old haphazard kind of playthings that were meant simply for fun.

Resplendent in a robe once worn by Queen Victoria, England's Queen Elizabeth II poses with her husband, Prince Philip, as she appears in the House of Lords, London, to open her first session of Parliament. In a speech from the throne, the Queen announced that Britain would turn back toward capitalism in 1953 by removing from government control the steel and trucking industries.

Eyelid Shadows Spell Natural Facial Charm

By HELEN FOLLETT
Eye shadows have settled out of the theatrical dressing room into the well-dressed woman's boudoir. They come in as many colors as Joseph's coat but in more subdued shades.

No matter what type of complexion, what color hair or eyes, there is an intriguing shadow to be found.

Blue, of course, is the favorite. It creates beauty appeal for the blonde and the brunette. Only the redhead is forbidden its use; she will select a faint pastel green that, as if by magic, will glorify her flaming thatch.

There are gray shadows, but make-up artists are not keen about them. There are bronze tones that are just the ticket for the girl whose skin is tanned or golden.

Mauve shadows "do something" to the white-haired sisters with fair skins. A little mauve then is added to racelle powder to complete the facial decorations.

There is one catch! These tonalities should be applied discreetly, carefully and with restraint. Done with the touch of the cosmetic artist, they are intriguing; applied too lavishly or with the wrong pattern they will impart a lithographic look, and that simply won't do these days when face painting must carry the delicate touch.

A woman's good friend, an expert facial operator, will give directions, not only in the choice of the color but the manner of application, very important matter!

Royersford School Board Discusses Consolidation; 2d Meeting Scheduled
 Royersford school board discussed consolidation plans briefly last night.
 With the time nearly due when the Royersford board must decide definitely which jointure plan to pursue, it was announced an informal meeting will take place tonight with the Spring City board.
 Purpose of this meeting, it was understood, is for both Royersford and Spring City to discuss whether the Twin-Borough boards should attempt a merger or jointure with their adjacent districts, or whether it would be advisable for each of the local boards to talk consolidation with districts in their respective counties.
 For this reason, it was announced that the scheduled meeting Thursday night of 10 Montgomery county boards will be increased to include 13 school districts. The three districts adjoining Spring City, comprising East Vincent, West Vincent and East Coventry townships, also have been invited to attend the meeting, to be held in Royersford High school library.
 At the meeting tonight an attempt will be made by both the Spring City and Royersford boards to decide which jointure plan is most feasible.

AT THE MEETING of the 'Ford board last night it was reported the valuation of the High school plant has increased $30,000 over the valuation the past year.
 The industrial appraisal report showed the valuation figure as $943,065, less a depreciation of $53,609, leaving the present net valuation as $889,456.
 The board discussed at length the matter of repairing the roof spouting to prevent water seeping into the building. This discussion revealed a new roof was needed. The matter of rain water conductors was referred to the property committee, which was instructed to seek bids for a new roof.
 Director Russell E. Keen reported various repairs to the school properties.
 An opinion was reported from the board's solicitor, H. I. Hiestand, attorney, regarding the advisability of including all employees of the district under Social Security. This would include the tax collector, treasurer, secretary.
 According to the solicitor, the board may take this action, but it is not compulsory. Hiestand, however, advised against any action at this time, because of consolidation talks now in progress. The board tabled the matter.

REPORTING AS CHAIRMAN of the athletic committee, Director Keen listed the following equipment purchased: 36 football uniforms, $375; 15 hockey uniforms, $150, and seven cheerleaders' sweaters, $50.75. The purchase of 10 basketball uniforms at a cost of $265 is under consideration, all from athletic funds.
 Dr. Oliver C. Kuntzman, supervising principal, reported elementary school enrolment of 455 and attendance 98 percent. Junior-Senior high school enrolment 333, attendance 97 percent.
 The school head reported 88 persons attending Adult education evening classes and announced plans for consolidation meetings.
 To meet the needs of the present home economics department enrolment in Grades seven to 12, the following was reported purchased: Two sewing machines, six pairs of cutting shears, three pairs of pinking shears, two pairs of button-hole scissors, six tracing wheels, bobbins and needles. Additional equipment has been requisitioned through the county office.

 Dr. Kuntzman read a letter from A. Pauline Sanders, State head of home economics education, who visited the local home economics department the past week. Miss Sanders commended the school district for the improvements made in the essential parts of the buildings and for providing new sewing machines, a refrigerator and comfortable chairs. She added that in order to meet the needs of the 135 pupils in this department it would be helpful if the area for an enriched homemaking program could be larger. She suggested the use of rooms on the first floor directly above the present department.
 IT WAS REPORTED that the tuition rates set tentatively in recent months were in error. On recommendation of the county superintendent's office the tuition rate for elementary pupils was ordered fixed at $12.17 per month, instead of $10.30, and the High school rate at $22.94 per month, instead of $22.24.
 Report of the treasurer listed a balance of $73,843.93 in the school fund and $694.78 in the public library account.
 Tax collector's report showed total credits of $2495.47 against a previous unpaid balance of $14,586.04, leaving a present outstanding balance of $12,090.57.

Elementary School Sels 'Open House' Program for Monday
 An "open house" program has been arranged for Spring City elementary school Monday at 1:15 p. m., as part of American Education Week observance.
 Dr. Ross L. Neagley, professor of education and executive secretary of Philadelphia area school study council at Temple university, will speak on "Parent-Teacher Conferences."
 The study council recently published a pamphlet on this topic entitled "Briefing for Operation-Parent Teacher Conferences." Mrs. Elizabeth Medrick, of the local schools, participated in the project.
 Dr. Neagley is a graduate of Morrisville High school and holds degrees from Shippensburg State Teachers college, Columbia university and Temple. He also has taken graduate work at University of Pennsylvania.
 HE HAS had a wide experience in teaching elementary and secondary schools and as a supervising principal, and is the author of numerous articles on educational subjects.
 Ruth Dubson, principal of the local elementary schools, will show the film strips which were purchased with funds donated by the PTA the past Spring. After the program the parents will visit the various rooms and teachers. Refreshments will be served.
 The committee in charge of arrangements comprises Miss Dubson, Mrs. Neal McClellan, Miss Tyas, Myrtle Taschner, Mrs. Grace Yeager, Mrs. Myra Britcher, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Howard Laishaw, Mrs. Carl Shoneman, Mrs. Alfreda Findenisen, Mrs. Harry Harker and Mrs. John Hildebeitel.
 High school open house has been planned for Monday night, Nov. 17.

DEATHS—FUNERALS
 Funeral services for MRS. SALLIE AMANDA SPATZ, 3042 LIMEKILN PIKE, NORTH HILLS, widow of Morris C. Spatz, were conducted at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a funeral home at 367 Walnut street, Royersford. The Rev. W. G. Condlis, of the Jehovahs Witnesses, Philadelphia, officiated. Interment was made in St. James cemetery, Limerick. Bearers were Royal Spatz Sr., Royal Spatz Jr., Paul, Jay and Jacob Spatz and Fred W. Keeley.
 Funeral services for JAMES MACINTIRE, LIMERICK TOWNSHIP, who died in Pottstown hospital Wednesday, will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in a funeral home at 367 Walnut street, Royersford. Interment will be made in St. James cemetery, Limerick.
 DE PERE, Wis., Nov. 6 (UP)—Here's a little advice to the thief who stole the jars from Prof. John Bartone's car Wednesday night:
 1. Don't open the jars.
 2. Bring them back and get your reward.
 Bartone explained he's right in the middle of a scientific experiment. The jars contained 350 cockroaches.

Mau Mau Suspects Arrested
 A native policeman stands by in Nairobi, Kenya Colony, Africa, as Mau Mau suspects leave a police wagon following their arrest. Hundreds of suspects have been rounded up since the British launched a drive to halt the epidemic of murders and looting by the native secret organization.

Truck Driver Crushed To Death Under Load
 YORK SPRINGS, Nov. 6 (UP)—A Georgia truck driver was crushed to death under a trailerload of eggs and fertilizer today when two tractor-trailers collided at the Adams county community.
 The dead man, whose body was recovered two hours after the crash, was identified by State police as Harry M. Bacon, 29 Savannah, Ga. State police said Bacon's unit came down a hill and crashed into the other at an intersection of US 15 and State Route 94. The trailer fell on top of Bacon's cab.
 The other unit was operated by Wesley Hoisington, 52, Detroit, Mich., carrying a load of eggs, fertilizer and cable from Baltimore to Detroit. Bacon was carrying a load of oranges to Toronto, Can.
 The two highways intersect at the foot of a steep hill. Hoisington, who was uninjured, said he had stopped and was just starting across the intersection when the collision happened.

'Underground Pentagon' Is Three-Story Building
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (UP)—A three-story building in a hollowed-out mountain will provide an "underground Pentagon" for use if Washington should be bombed, the Washington Post reported tonight.
 In a copyright story the Post gave details of a little-publicized construction project at Fort Ritchie, Md., about 65 miles north of Washington. It said the details are contained in a historical summary, published by the Army's Corps of Engineers, of its work in the Washington area.
 The building is a three-story structure built into a mountain side. It is a hollowed-out mountain. It is a hollowed-out mountain. It is a hollowed-out mountain.

Wayne Morse Silent On Way He Will Vote
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 (UP)—Sen. Wayne Morse of Oregon, usually one of the most outspoken men in Washington, maintained silence today on how he will cast his important vote on organization of the new Senate.
 Morse was elected as a Republican but bolted his party in the presidential campaign to support Democrat Adlai Stevenson. He has not said whether he will vote with the Republicans or Democrats when the time comes for distributing Senate committee chairmanships and the like.
 His position assumes importance because the new Senate will include 48 Republicans, 47 Democrats and himself. If he should vote with the Democrats, the result would be a tie that could be broken by the vice president.
 Until Jan. 20 the vice president will be Democrat Alben Barkley; after that, it will be Republican Richard M. Nixon. Republicans figure, at worst, they can take charge of the committees once Nixon is sworn in.
 In the 35 Senate seats at stake this year, the Republicans captured 23 and the Democrats 12. But this meant a net gain of only two for the GOP because the party had 21 Senate seats at stake this year.
 Morse got out a statement today and signed it as an "independent" from Oregon instead of an "independent Republican." His office staff said he had ordered it that way in dictating the statement by telephone from a point outside of the city.

Two Schools Try for Unbeaten Campaign

HARRISBURG, Nov. 6 (AP)—Two major schoolboy grid powers run into the last hurdle on the path to an unbeaten, untied season this week end, the final 1952 football action for many Pennsylvania high schools.

A good number of teams in the western half of the State are closing out the 1952 campaign after an early mid-September start. However, many eastern and central powers have from one to three games left—some of them due to decide title races.

Shade Twp. currently rated third in the tough Western conference, and Washington of the Pittsburgh area WPAL, Class AA are the eleven aiming to write a perfect season into the record books. Both have spotless slates in their seven games.

Tuesday another Western conference leader, DuBois, tied for first place with Lock Haven, will make what should be a successful bid for an all-winning campaign in an Armistice Day contest against Punxsutawney.

All three are favored to chalk up victories and become the first major powers to complete the 1952 season without a setback or tie. Shade Twp. will have the toughest job by far, in a rugged Conemaugh Twp. which topped the western loop last year.

Washington's Little Presidents, one of two teams left in double A competition of the WPAL, are expected to have an easier time downing Donora.

The single section II conference game in the northwest is vital to the title hopes of the Corry Beavers. Corry must beat Oil City, now second, to stay in a position to win, and with a scoring average of 39 points per game in eight tries and seven straight victories, should be able to do it.

Two games involving three of the top four in the Central Penn can go a long way towards picking a successor to Williamsport. York now heading the standings, is the choice to beat fourth-place Steelton. Runner up Reading is favored to top Lebanon, now sixth.

In the South Penn league leading Hershey High gets the nod in its final conference game against Hanover. Undeclared but once-tied Chambersburg, which can still win the race by taking its last two games, should get past fifth place Carlisle this week end.

Southern and Old Forge in the Northern, have little trouble ahead against Blythe Twp., and Dickinson City. In another big eastern game, Sunbury is favored to extend an all-winning conference record against Shamokin. It's also a battle between the first and third teams in the Keystone conference.

Last week's AP selections were 78.4 percent correct for a season mark of 73.5.

The other choices.

WEST — Farrell over Altoona, Beaver Falls over Ellwood City, Union-Town over Brownsville, Johnstown over Greensburg, McKeesport over Jeanette, Wilkes-Barre over Latrobe, Turtle Creek over Scott, Sharon over Meadville, Titusville over Hampton Twp., Vandergrift over Ford City, Jefferson over Waynesburg, Bedford over Everett, Erie Strong Vincent over Millcreek, Windber over Somerset, Bradford over Olean (N.Y.), Lock Haven over Tyrone, Indiana over Conemaugh, Ebensburg over Portage, Lewistown over State College, Huntingdon over Burnham, Derry, Adams Twp. over Richland Twp., Hollidaysburg over Bellwood, Antis.

EAST—Mt. Carmel over Hazleton, Nesquehoning over Summit Hill, Schuylkill Haven over Mahanoy City, Pottsville over Tamaqua, Wilkes-Barre GAR over Wilkes-Barre Coughlin, Kingston over Nanticoke, Lansford over Hazle Twp., West Hazleton over Berwick, Scranton Central over Oliphant, Allentown over Easton, Stroudsburg over Slatington, Coatesville over Pottstown, Towanda over Tunkhannock, Williamsport over William Penn, Lancaster over Harrisburg, John Harris, Mechanicsburg over Gettysburg, Patterson Park (Md.) over Milton Hershey, Jersey Shore over Milton.

Sooners May Try To Surpass Spartan Eleven Against Irish

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 6 (AP)—Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, in a strange champion-maker role, may have to battle to avert their worst defeat under Frank Leahy when Oklahoma's splendid Sooners roll against them Saturday.

With the eyes of the nation on them via TV, the once-unbeatable Irish will find Oklahoma, the country's top rushing and scoring team, trying to give them a harder battle than any Michigan State a week later.

Oklahoma, a two-touchdown favorite over the Irish, is ranked fourth in the AP's national poll, while Michigan State is king of the hill, though Notre Dame is Oklahoma's only chance to shake a fist at proud Michigan State.

It was Michigan State that last season handed a Leahy-coached Notre Dame team its worst defeat, 35-0. In six games this season, unbeaten but once-tied Oklahoma has averaged 42 points per contest.

Notre Dame with a 4-1-1 record has averaged 19.5 points, but in Oklahoma faces a team that has yielded an average of only 100 yards rushing per game to rank ninth nationally in that department.

A/L-AMERICAN FUTURE BOOK

NEW YORK, Nov. 6—Two backs who are getting their share of headlines this Fall are Gene Filipowski of Villanova and Johnny Olszewski of California's Golden Bears.

Filipowski, a 180-pound junior from Sacramento, Calif., led the nation's ground gainers after Villanova had won its first four games from Kentucky, Clemson, Detroit and Wake Forest.

Gene, a former Army star who was out of football last year, sprinted 44 yards for a first period score against Wake Forest and the Deacons never were in the game after that.

In this game the 20-year-old halfback gained 78 yards in 11 carries to run his four-game total for the season to 475 yards. Filipowski who was involved in the West Point cribbing scandal of a year ago, is an honor student in his first semester at Villanova College.

OLSZEWSKI, too has been a big gun for California as the Golden Bears go after the Pacific Coast Conference crown.

Against Oregon, Johnny O scored in sprints of 32 and 70 yards as his mates won, 51-7. In that game he went 172 yards in 17 carries for a coast high for the season.

Last year against Washington State he set a conference one-game record by taking the ball 269 yards.

Olszewski, a 195-pound fullback, can go through the line or around the flanks and is definite All-American timber.

New Faces to Be Pushed Around In Reading Armory Wrestling Show

READING, Nov. 6 — Promoter Bert Bertolini will inaugurate his "New-Deal-New Faces" policy when he presents his weekly wrestling show Saturday night at the Reading armory.

Realizing that the fans have had their fill of matmen who have been appearing here with monotonous regularity the dapper little mat maestro from Bryn Mawr will introduce a bevy of newcomers this week.

Providing the action in the one-fall-to-a-finish windup will be Danny (Bulldog) Plechas, 255-pound musclemen from South Omaha, Neb., and Roland Meeker, 225-pound crowd-pleaser from Harvey, N. D.

Sharing the semi-windup spotlight will be Mike (Red) Ryan, veteran campaigner from Philadelphia and points west, and Pedro Escobar, sensational Spaniard from California.

Rounding out the three-even program will be a best-of-three-falls Australian tag team match in which Bill Hiers, former football standout at the University of South Carolina, and Joe Swinick, of Columbus, Ohio, and also Bogzi of South America. Escobar, Hiers, Swinick and Bell will be displaying their wares here for the first time.

PLECHAS made his Reading debut last Saturday night and used a leg-lock to defeat Ray Thunder, in 18 minutes and 55 seconds. On the same card, Meeker flattened Jim Austeri, former junior heavyweight champion, with a body slam in 18 minutes and 36 seconds.

Anti-Stalling is another big reason Esso Extra performs best in 9 out of 10 cars all year 'round

Here's a new experience in gasoline performance... starting power that gets your engine going at a touch and keeps it going.

The only gasoline made to combat cold engine stalling... Anti-Stalling Esso Extra is also famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage. Try a tankful today for real Happy Motoring. Find out why more motorists use Esso Extra than any other premium gasoline in the area served by Esso Dealers!

While you're at your Esso Dealer's let him give your car a complete lubrication and careful check-up for the cold weather driving ahead.

Esso

Detroit's Automotive Engineers say that cold-engine stalling has been a persistent problem for years. Under certain conditions, powerful gasoline engines evaporate and freeze moisture out of the air, "icing up" the carburetor and causing temporary stalling. This stalling is practically eliminated by the new Esso Extra Gasoline. (No gasoline, of course, can correct stalling caused by mechanical faults or electrical failure.)

Poetic Prognosticator Picks Syracuse Over Penn State

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—The NCAA is insisting that the large young men who butt heads on Saturday afternoons also should be able to ring up a good score in the brain department. This is frightening. The next step may be to educate the football forecasters, which could be catastrophic.

Just to be prepared, we spent the last two days at the public library, poring over large volumes of ancient literature, which brought us today's erudite picks (last week's score, in back-alley prose, 46-9 for 836):

Oklahoma over Notre Dame Vessels, they say, are things to contain; in the case of Billy, they try it in vain.

Michigan State over Indiana: The Spartans are tops in the AP poll and here's just another in their lengthening toll.

Georgia Tech over Army: Fast, as lightning and busy as bees are the Engineers' twosome of Harde-man and Teas.

Stanford over Southern California: The Trojans are favored by the gridiron wise but we'll take the Indians in a big surprise.

UCLA over Oregon State: The UCLans don't know what it is to lose; if Oregon wins we'll blow a fuse.

KANSAS over Nebraska: Out in the West where the corn grows tall a fellow named Reich can tote that ball.

Tennessee over LSU: The Vols have a back named Andy Kozar, he can be stopped, but not so far.

Purdue over Minnesota: There's a Schmaling named Max on old Purdue, there's naught for the Gophers except to pursue.

Georgia over Penn: The Quakers are favored by a TD or so, but our Dixie blood won't stand for it no mo'.

Texas over Baylor: The Longhorns are hungry for a Cotton Bowl bid; if they lick the Bears they'll crack the lid.

Syracuse over Penn State: The Lions are ripe for a mild upset but if you're very smart you'll skip a bet.

OHIO STATE over Pitt: The Buckeyes at home are tough to hold, don't take our mortgage—it's already sold.

Navy over Duke: The Dukes are down after their loss to Tech; without Bob Burrows they'll hit the deck.

The others:

Friday Night
Detroit over Boston College, Bucknell over George Washington, Vanderbilt over Miami, Marquette over Miami (O), Wichita over Carls-well Field.

SATURDAY

EAST—Columbia over Dartmouth, Connecticut over Brown, Princeton over Harvard, Holy Cross over Colgate, Rutgers over Lafayette, Maine over Bowdoin, Clemson over Fordham, Boston U. over Temple.

MIDWEST—Wisconsin over Northwestern, Missouri over Colorado, Michigan over Cornell, Illinois over Iowa, Wyoming over Kansas State, Villanova over Tulsa, Iowa State over Drake.

SOUTH—Mississippi State over Auburn, Washington and Lee over North Carolina State, Furman over Presbyterian, Davidson over Richmond, South Carolina over The Citadel, West Virginia over VMI, William and Mary over VPI, Tulane over Kentucky, Alabama over Chattanooga.

SOUTHWEST—Arkansas over Rice, Southern Methodist over Texas A&M, TCU over Wake Forest, Mississippi over Houston.

FAR WEST—California over

Marcune, Compo In TV Headliner

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Brooklyn featherweight Pat Marcune makes a bid for the big time tomorrow night when he tangles with Eddie Compo of New Haven in a 10 rounder which will be nationally telecast from the St. Nicholas Arena.

The hard-hitting little 128-pounder from Brooklyn has won his last four bouts but he is an 8 to 5 underdog against the more experienced and heavier Compo. It will be Marcune's debut as a main eventer on a National TV show.

Compo will have about a five pound weight edge, 133 to 128, over his 23-year old foe. The swarthy, 25-year-old New Englander has met better opponents than Marcune and has an impressive won-loss record of 68-4-1. Pat's record is 32-10-1 with 15 kayos. Compo has scored 13 kayos.

Judge Bars Beard, Groza, Barnstable From All Sports Activity for 3 Years

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 (AP)—Three former University of Kentucky and Olympic basketball stars were barred from all sports for a period of three years today for their part in the widespread basketball fix scandals.

The players were Ralph Beard and Alex Groza, All-America members of Kentucky's "fabulous five" which won national honors and went to the Olympic games in 1948, and their teammate, Dale Barnstable.

The ban was ordered by general sessions Judge Saul S. Streit as a condition to probationary sentences meted out to the three players, who were convicted of conspiring with gamblers to arrange the point spread of games.

The players were "indicted a year ago on charges of fixing a 1949 tournament game and at the same time were charged with conspiracy covering the team's entire 1948-49 schedule.

Streit ruled that during the three-year period of their probation the former Kentucky athletes would not be permitted to engage in any sports, amateur or professional. Disobedience could bring jail terms.

Groza and Beard heard the judge's orders in his chambers this morning. The same notification was sent to Barnstable, who couldn't be present.

No action was taken in the case of another Kentucky All-America performer, Billy Spivey, who was indicted last April for perjury in connection with the basketball scandals.

Spivey, who pleaded innocent to any part in the scandals, recently signed to play basketball with the Detroit Vagabonds, a professional barnstorming team.

GROZA AND BEARD, who with other Kentucky graduates had formed the Indianapolis team in the National Basketball Association, signed recently to play with Jersey City in the American Basketball league. The league folded after a battle over whether to permit convicted fixers to play.

Only this week Kentucky cancelled its entire 1952-53 basketball schedule after such a recommendation had been made by the council of the National Collegiate Athletic association. The council took the step because of cash payments made previously to some Kentucky players.

Streit called Beard and Groza into his chambers to explain terms of their probation.

"You have betrayed your honor, your colleagues, your college and the public," he said. "You have forfeited the right to engage in public sports, amateur or professional."

"One of the terms of your pro-

Sugar Bowl Delays Selection Of Opponent for Georgia Tech

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6 (AP)—The Sugar Bowl adopted a wait-and-see attitude today in seeking an opponent for Georgia Tech.

It might be a week, or even longer, before an opponent is selected to meet Georgia Tech's unbeaten, untied Engineers in the New Year's Day football game.

That was the word from a Sugar Bowl spokesman who indicated the field had been narrowed down to four teams—Maryland, Oklahoma, Penn State and Villanova.

And which team will receive the bid is a big question with a $135,000 answer.

It's apparent that the Sugar Bowl leans to Maryland and Oklahoma. But both schools offer some problems that have caused the Sugar Bowl to adopt its wait-and-see mood.

1. MARYLAND, winner of the 1952 Sugar Bowl game over Tennessee, 28-13, is under suspension from the bowl-banning Southern conference for accepting the bid to play Tennessee. The Sugar Bowl is anxious to see if the Southern conference removes its bowl ban and gives Maryland a clean bill of health. It has been reported the Southern might lift its bowl ban.

2. Oklahoma, a veteran of two Sugar Bowl appearances, also holds membership in a conference (The Big Seven) that forbids bowl games. Furthermore, Oklahoma meets Notre Dame Saturday. An Oklahoma defeat might remove the Sooners from the picture.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

1952-MODEL of poetry celebrating deathless love, as submitted by a freshman at Lafayette.
My bonnie lies under the auto;
My bonnie lies under the car,
Oh, hurry and send a repair man
Cause it's lonesome up here where I are.

"I'm afraid I'll have to break my engagement to that Wall Street banker," sighed a starlet in the wardrobe department one morning. "The poor fellow's lost all his money." "Goodness!" sympathized her friend. "What will you do now?" The starlet answered thoughtfully, "I've about decided to invest half of it in real estate and the rest in stock."

Cy Bartlett avers that he asked his friend Irma one evening if she felt like seeing Cyrano de Bergerac and she answered, "It all depends. What's he playing in?"

BRIGHTEN THE HOURS!

Teacher reproved a pupil who swore.
"Your daddy doesn't swear, does he?" She asked.
"No, Miss Jones," replied the lad.
"Well, if he were working in the garden and suddenly stepped backward on a rake and it flew up and hit him from behind, what would he say?"
"He'd say," answered the boy, "you're home early, dear."

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
is LONGFELLOW
A X Y D L B A A X R

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

He'll Have More Christmas Money

Another lucky shopper is shown above as he moved into the charmed circle of cash prize winners while shopping in Pottstown's Santa Clausland. He will be awarded $2.50 by the Mercantile bureau if he comes to The Mercury office today, identifies himself, and tells where the photographer caught this picture. Every shopping day some other person will be lucky in one of Pottstown's stores or on busy High street as The Mercury photographer wanders through Santa Clausland snapping pictures. You too will find that it pays to shop on Pottstown's High street, and in more ways than one if your face appears in the ring.

Lucky Shopper First Saw Everyone But Herself in The Mercury's Photo

When Mrs. John Epps, Limerick, looked at page 16 of yesterday's Mercury, she saw some familiar faces in the daily "ringed" shopper photograph.

Mrs. Epps

From the crowd photographed in the J. C. Penney company store, she quickly picked out her husband, their 3-year-old son, John Jr., and their two daughters, Carol, 12 and Joan, 11.

"Everybody's there except me," she protested to her husband. "Where was I?"

"There you are," he replied quickly and pointed at the shopper who had a ring drawn around her. Mrs. Epps, like every "ringed" shopper, became the winner of the $2.50 daily prize.

WHEN SHE stopped at The Mercury office to pick up her prize at noon, she mentioned she already had been telephoned by several friends who wanted to make sure Mrs. Epps knew she was in the prize ring, so to speak.

The daily $2.50 award is given by the Pottstown Mercantile bureau. Every day a prize is given to a lucky shopper in Pottstown's stores, along Santa Clausland on High street.

If you yourself looking at yourself in a "ringed" photo today, come into The Mercury, identify yourself, tell where you were shopping, and the prize'll be yours.

Judge Tells Husband To Feed Wife, 7 Kids

DETROIT, Nov. 6 (AP)—A Detroit judge took it upon himself today to change the table manners of a defendant.

Albert Norberg, only 5 feet 7 but weighing 228, was haled into recorder's court on a charge of beating his 102-pound wife, Yvonne. Before finding him guilty, Judge Joseph A. Gillis asked Mrs. Norberg her story. This is it:

Norberg spends most of his welfare money for beer. Some of it goes for steak, which he eats while his wife and seven children eat bologna or just boiled potatoes.

A court clinic examination showed that Mrs. Norberg was undernourished. A similar examination showed her husband well-fed and in excellent health.

Judge Gillis sentenced Norberg to 30 days in the Detroit house of correction. He said he would see that the husband, a carpenter, gets a job when the term is up.

"You also are going to pass the food to everyone else first from now on," ruled the judge. "What's left, you can have."

Holdup by Telephone Is Reported to Police

STUDIO CITY, Calif., Nov. 6 (AP)—A holdup by telephone was reported to police today.

Richard L. Woodhull, 24, service station employee, said that as he opened the station for the day the telephone rang and a voice said:

"I have a 30.06 rifle trained on the back of your neck from across the street. Leave all your money in the office and lock yourself in the men's washroom for 10 minutes."

Woodhull said he did, and while he was in the washroom someone tried the door and said, "All the money better be there or you're going to get hurt." When he emerged, he said, $80 was gone from the till.

Dewey Says He Plans To Serve Out His Term

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 6 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey declared again today that "I expect and intend to serve out my term as governor" of New York. His term ends Dec. 31, 1954.

The governor, who campaigned strenuously for President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower, has been mentioned repeatedly as a likely member of the general's cabinet.

Dewey was asked in a news conference whether he would accept a cabinet post from Eisenhower if one were offered.
